SUFFRAGISTS IN TENNESSEE STEAM ROLLER OPPONENTS

Ask for Reconsideration and Then Vote It Down

HOUSE MEMBERS GO TO ALABAMA

NASHVILLE, Aug. 21.—Altho Tennessee's ratification of the federal woman suffrage amendment stood on the legislative record of the lower house of the legislature tonight as finally confirmed, a snarl of legal and legislative technicalities remained to be disposed of before the action can be certified.

Suffrage supporters who had ridden rough shod in the house during the day over every obstacle, claimed full legislative triumph. They declared that only a temporary injunction secured by the antis prevented immediate certification.

On the other hand, Speaker Walker, leader of the opposition, and his lieutenants said the suffragists had ruined their cause and that even should the courts eventually hold ratification legal, the litigation would so delay a final decision that the amendment would not figure in the November election unless some other state ratified it.

Members Leave State

Meanwhile, 25 members of the house opposed to suffrage, were in Decatur, Alabama, evading service in the house for the avowed purpose of preventing any legislative action until a new legislature shall have been elected in November. They hurried across the state line in a body early today before the house convened.

The restraining order, granted by Judge Langford of the chancery court is returnable in five days. It was issued on an application contending that under the state constitution this legislature has no power to pass on the suffrage amendment.

Governor Roberts and other officials were forbidden to certify to Washington that ratification had been completed and speakers of the senate and house restrained from taking any action toward ratification until the matter is heard by he court.

When the house met this morning, a roll call showed 59 members present, or seven short of a quorum. Speaker Walker declared a recess and ordered the sergeant at arms to arrest absentees.

Asks for Reconsideration

T. K. Riddick, suffragist floor leader, offered a motion that the house reconsider its ratification of the suffrage measure.

Walker ruled the motion out of order for lack of a quorum and added that the injunction just served upon him also stood in the way. On an appeal the house failed to sustain the ruling and Walker called Representative Joe Odle, suffragist, to the chair.

Odle ordered a roll call on Riddick's motion for reconsideration. Walker made a point of order that there was no quorum, but was ignored and the suffragists defeated the motion to reconsider by a vote of 50 to 9.

Riddick then moved that the house transmit to the senate the senate joint resoluion ratifying the amendment. Again Walker made a point of no quorum. Again Odle ignored walker, ordered the roll call and the motion carried, 50 to 0, antis not voting. Adjournment until Monday afternoon then was taken. Anti-suffrage leaders declared the procedure of the suffragist majority today in killing the Walker motion for reconsideration could not be held legal.

Speakers Disagree

Speaker Walker insisted he could not sign the ratification resolution under the present circumstances.

Speaker Todd, of the senate, said the resolution needed no signatures and on this point the two speakers sharply disagreed.

The suffragists expressed pride in what they termed their "steam roller" tactics. They declared the legislative battle was over. This belief was shared by Governor Roberts and Attorney General Thompson.

ASK RECEIVER FOR BROTHERHOOD RAILWAY TRAINMEN

Demand Distribution of $10,000,000 Trust Fund

SAID TO BE WORK OF INSURGENTS

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 21.—Appointment of a receiver for the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, and an accouting and distribution of the brotherhood's trust fund, estimated at $10,000,000 is asked in a suit filed here today by Benjamin Callahan, head of the Columbus Yardmen's association.

The suit was filed by Callahan as an individual policy holder, but in effect is said to be action on the part of the Chicago Yardmen's association, the insurgent association which precipitated the recent "rump" strike of yardmen.

Want Fund Split.

The petition says there are 145,000 members of the outlaw organization and estimates their their share of the trust fund at $5,000,000.

The action was brought in the Franklin county courts here so that personal service could be obtained on Val Fitzpatrick first vice-president of the B. R. T. who lives here. In a separate suit against the B. of D. T., James Fowler, local member, charges that payment of an insurance policy of $1,600 for total disability, resulting injury to his eyes, March 21, was refused on the grounds that he had been implicated in the strike movement. He asks the full amount of the policy.

PONZI TURNS OVER MILLION IN CHECKS AND SECURITIES

Liabilities Are Estimated at $7,000,000 by Accountant

PONZI IGNORANT OF BUSINESS AFFAIRS

BOSTON, Aug. 21.—Charles Ponzi turned over to federal receivers today part of what remains from millions of dollars he received from investors in his discredited financial operations and went on the witness stand to tell about the rest. Little had been elicied as to his assets, however, when the receivers' hearing was adjourned until Tuesday next.

The checks and securities which Ponzi handed over as announced in the court room today, did not greatly excel a million dollars.

Edwin L. Pride, the accountant again estimated Ponzi's liabilities at $7,000,000. Ponzi said he had additional assets, but did not indicate their amount.

The only business of which Pride could find any trace, the auditor testified, was the issuing of notes for the amount of the investment, plus fifty percent and the payment of early notes by the receipts from later ones. There was nothing on Ponzi's books, he said, to indicate any business in international postal reply coupons.

Ignorant of Business Affairs.

Ponzi's replies to questions by counsel for the receivers indicated ignorance of the conduct of his business affairs. He did not know the names of his agents, was not familiar with his accounts in several banks and was in doubt how many persons were authorized to draw checks in his name. He said he left most of these things to Miss Lucy Meli, 18, who was manager of his office.

Ponzi said he was certain he had paid out to holders of matured notes or surrendered notes an aggrgate of $7 500,000 after his conference with authorities, July 26, and before payments were stopped two weeks later.

The sessions were continued until next Tuesday with a request by the receivers that Ponzi and Pride get together so that Ponzi might refresh his memory of business details.

Dr. C. C. Lee, secretary of the Willis Branch Coal company at Glen Jean, told the Charleston Gazette by telephone at 10 o'clock tonight that the shooting could be heard in Glen Jean, ten miles from Cirtsville. At 10:30 p. m., a representative of the Gazette talked with the Oak Hill Telephone company operator at Pax, two miles from the scene. She said the shooting could be heard plainly at Pax.

Ancient Weapon Used In Suffrage Battle

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Ang. 21. Since the days when Andrew Johnson was merely a state figure in politics, a legislative "walkout" in connection with a filibuster has been a weapon invoked in the Tennessee legislature and all factions have resorted to it. The first "walkout" was staged in the senate in 1841 when thirteen Democratic senators one of whom was Andrew Johnson, broke a quorum to prevent the election of two Whigs to the United States senate the result being Tennessee was without representation there for two years. The thirteen senators are known in political tradition as the "immortal thirteen."

In 1885 to defeat a registration bill, Republican members of the state senate barricaded themselves in rooms in a hotel there. They were fed for three or four days by hauling baskets of provisions across the street on a rope trolley.

In 1909 to invalidate new election laws, Democratic senators broke a quorum and quietly left for Hopkinsville, Ky., remaining for a week. This filibuster failed under the holding of the supreme court. When the general assembly met January 2, 1911, 37 members, "regular" Democrats, refused to take the oath and tied up the legislative wheels until January 7 when an agreement was reached.

On April 13, 1911, the same session, "independent" Democrats and Republicans of the house broke a quorum, going to Decatur, Alabama, as a result of the capture of the house by "regular" Democrats and the jeopardizing of the election laws and the prohibition laws.

This "walkout" lasted a month the absentees returning May 11, not being molested. Deliberations finally were resumed June 23.

The Galion address Friday to a gathering of railway employes, and the one on September at the Minnesota State Fair are the only engagements away from Marion that appear on the list of ten speeches. It was said these ten, the last of which is on September 17, were the only ones definitely scheduled, tho a number of others had been promised tentatively.

A feature next week will be a speech Tuesday to a delegation of stage and screen stars representing the Harding and Coolidge Theatrical League, who plan to put on a front porch entertainment for the nominee and his headquarters staff.

Most of today, Senator Harding spent in conference with Colonel George Harvey, the New York editor. It is understood they talked principally about the league of nations of which Colonel Harvey is an irreconcilable opponent, and that the new plan for an international court of justice, in progress of formulation by Elihu Root and European statesmen, had a large part in their discussion.

Colonel Harvey declinad to discuss an opinion publicly but said he might have something to say after his talk with the nominee.

Presented With Jeweled Baton and Marshal's Insignia

LAFAYETTE STATUE UNVEILED AT METZ

METZ, Alsace-Lorraine, Aug. 21—(By The Associated Press)—Marshal Foch standing at the foot of the statue of LaFayette just presented to Metz by the Knights of Columbus today voiced his friendship for America and received from the Knights a jeweled baton and insignia of his office as a marshal of France. He was obviously deeply moved when the baton cermoney took place.

It was decidedly a Foch day. The marshal headed a procession of Knights into the old cathedral saying to them:

"I have come to pray side by side with you for the American heroes in the war."

The ceremony at the statue brought out the population of Metz and hundreds from the surrounding country. The statue was veiled in silk, with an American flag near the base. Around the platform were grouped 3,000 children in native costume. Five thousand troops formed a guard of honor.

Supreme Knight Flaherty in presenting the statue, reminded those assembled of Pershing's famous words:

"LaFayette, we are here," and added:

"LaFayette we are still here."

The statue was dedicated by Martin H. Carmody and was accepted by the mayor of Metz and representatives of the various departments. Immediately after the ceremony Marshal Foch went to the foot of the monument, to which three little girls brought the case containing the baton which Mr. Flaherty presented.

BOLSHEVIKI USE STONE AGE TACTICS TO STEM DEFEAT

Imitate Maneuver of Nicholas I in 1831

RED FORCES FACE ANNIHILATION

PAFIS, Aug. 21.—(By The Associated Press.)—In the principal theatre of operation on the Polish front the Poles are advancing in the diretcion of Brest-Litovsk. They have reached the valley of the middle Bug.

The prisoners taken by the Poles in the last few days aggregate 19,000. The large amount of war material has not been estimated. ?

Many guns, with their carriages have been abandoned in the forests.

The chief operations are now going on in the fork of the Narew and Bug rivers, from which the Bolsheviki troops defeated before Warsaw are retreating hastily. The Polish harmony has as its objective the cutting of communications of the Bolsheviki center and right. Thus, it is between Ostralenka and Lomza and the enemy probably will make his last effort before the fate of the Red army in the north the situation of which is extremely grave, is decided.

In imitation of the maneuver executed in 1831 by Nichols I. the Bolsheviki have withdrawn a strong section of their forces to attack Thorn and Wloclawek, across the Vistula, and cut communications between Danzig and Warsaw.

These troops have encountered a fresh Polish army. Meanwhile another army, advancing from Modlin has attacked them from the south. A third army is defending the Narew river endeavoring to cut off these troops from their single road of retreat in the north.

Scattered over nearly one hundred miles along the frontier of East Prussia between Strasbourg and Ostralenka, these Red forces seem condemned to annihilation unless they take refuge on Prussian territory.

In order to diminish pressure between the Narew and the Bug the Bolsheviki have undertaken a demonstration on the Galician front, attacking on the Strippa. Their cavalry has crossed the upper Bug and Cossack patrols are appearing some leagues before Lemberg. This operation, however, is considered as too belated to effect any change in the situation on the middle Bug or to effect the issue of the battle now going on north of the Narew, in which the fate of the main Bolshevik armies apparently is being decided.

The high Polish command is reported to be fully aware that the forces of the Bolsheviki and have taken precautions to prevent a surprise.

"I hit him on the head with my revolver, not intending to kill him at first," police quote the negro as saying. "Then, when I saw him on the floor I thought I'd better shoot him a couple of times to make sure he had enough."

EFFORT BEING MADE TO FIND MISSING PERSONS

Twenty Nine Missing as Result of Steamer Collision

CAPTAINS DISAGREE AS TO STATE OF WEATHER

SAULT STE MARIE, Mich, Aug. 21.—Coast guards and lake steamers conducted a futile search tonight for survivors of the steamer Superior City, which went down off White Fish Point late Friday night after a collision with the Willis L. King, according to meager reports reaching here.

Twenty-eight members of the crew and one woman were missing and the four survivors who were brought here had all but abandoned hope for their rescue owing to the short time that elapsed between the collision and an explosion in the boiler room which completely wrecked the stern of the steel ore carrier.

SAULT STE MARIE, Mich, Aug. 21.—In the faint hope that some of the 29 persons missing following the sinking in Lake Superior last night of the freighter, Superior City after it collided with the steamer Willis L. King still might be alive, life savers and a tug searched the waters in the vicinity of White Fish Point today. Late today no word had been received from the searchers.

Four members of the crew of the Superior City, including Captain Sawyers were rescued. Walter Richter of Lorraine, Ohio, boatsmain of the Superior City and one of the men saved is in a local hospital. He was badly injured but clung to a piece of wreckage in the water. Richter declared the ships collided within two minutes after the captain's warning had been sounded, and that members of the crew had no time to escape.

Peter Jacobson, Cleveland, who was at the wheel when the ship was rammed declared that the King bore down upon them after the exchange of the usual signals. The sea was calm and the weather was rather hazy but he could easily distinguish the lights of the King, e declared.

Captain Nelson of the King, however, maintained that a fog enveloped the vessels and was responsible for the accident.

Plans were begun late today by owners of the vessels for an investigation of the accident.

Opens the Republican Campaign in State of Maine

DEMOCRATS WAVERED ON CAMPAIGN ISSUE

AUGUSTA, Me., Aug. 21.—Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee today opened his party's campaign in this state for election of members of congress with a speech in which he asserted that Governor Cox was dominated by President Wilson and four unnamed "bosses."

The Democratic candidate appeals to "both the Wilson and the anti-Wilson faction of his party," declared Mr. Hays. "To former he holds forth the president's platform. To the latter, he exhibits himself as an advocate of complete change in administration. He offers to the country for foreign use the Wilson covenant and for domestice service Tammany Hall—truly a marvelous combination of impotence and ill-repute."

Mr. Hays devoted much of his speech to campaign funds, denying that the Republican party planned to expend excessive sums.

Denies Cox Statement.

Also denying that millions had "gone into the Republican treasury," from "certain interests banded together to buy the presidency"—a statement which he credited to Governor Cox—Mr. Hays declared this amounted to a charge of conspiracy to betray the country.

Referring to the Republican plan to limit individual contributions to $1,000, Mr. Hays said:

"If this attempt fails to produce the requisite sums, we shall so state publicly, increase the maximum, and seek additional contributions."

Declaring that the party needed about $3,000,000, Mr. Hays said no criticism of the Democrats for seeking the largest obtainable contributions would be offered.

"Nor shall we in resentful emulation of the positive charges of the Democraic candidates so much as intimate that their responsible officers will use any part of their fund corruptly," he said

"Frankly and squarely, as be-between mutual respecting citizens, we don't believe they will or would if they could.

"But I give fair warning now that neither the Republican candidates nor management will take false aspersions lying down. If, at the decision of our adversaries the campaign shall finally resolve into a question of personal characters, we know of no reason, aside from natural distaste, which we should not meet that issue as readily as any other."

Mr. Hays accused the Democrats of indecision in selecting an issue about which to rally.

Of Republican willingness to meet them on whatever ground they chose, Mr. Hays said:

"When they conecentrated upon the league covenant without the dotting of an 'i' or the crossing of a 't' we met them squarely.

"When they pronounced the covenant only a 'secondary issue' after all, we acquiesced. When the candidates reversed their national chairman and declared the Wilson league the sole issue, we accepted most readily. Where next they will land is wholly conjectural."

The ultimate choice of the Democratic party is a matter of indifference to the Republicans, Mr. Hays declared, adding:

"Our sole requirement is that This referendum is going to be more than solemn. Before ended it will have comprised every phase of maladministration and every fleck of Wilsonitis that have brought untold miseries to a people who have every right to be prosperous and contented."

SUFFRAGISTS IN TENNESSEE STEAM ROLLER OPPONENTS

Ask for Reconsideration and Then Vote It Down

HOUSE MEMBERS GO TO ALABAMA

NASHVILLE, Aug. 21.—Altho Tennessee's ratification of the federal woman suffrage amendment stood on the legislative record of the lower house of the legislature tonight as finally confirmed, a snarl of legal and legislative technicalities remained to be disposed of before the action can be certified.

Suffrage supporters who had ridden rough shod in the house during the day over every obstacle, claimed full legislative triumph. They declared that only a temporary injunction secured by the antis prevented immediate certification.

On the other hand, Speaker Walker, leader of the opposition, and his lieutenants said the suffragists had ruined their cause and that even should the courts eventually hold ratification legal, the litigation would so delay a final decision that the amendment would not figure in the November election unless some other state ratified it.

Members Leave State

Meanwhile, 25 members of the house opposed to suffrage, were in Decatur, Alabama, evading service in the house for the avowed purpose of preventing any legislative action until a new legislature shall have been elected in November. They hurried across the state line in a body early today before the house convened.

The restraining order, granted by Judge Langford of the chancery court is returnable in five days. It was issued on an application contending that under the state constitution this legislature has no power to pass on the suffrage amendment.

Governor Roberts and other officials were forbidden to certify to Washington that ratification had been completed and speakers of the senate and house restrained from taking any action toward ratification until the matter is heard by he court.

When the house met this morning, a roll call showed 59 members present, or seven short of a quorum. Speaker Walker declared a recess and ordered the sergeant at arms to arrest absentees.

Asks for Reconsideration

T. K. Riddick, suffragist floor leader, offered a motion that the house reconsider its ratification of the suffrage measure.

Walker ruled the motion out of order for lack of a quorum and added that the injunction just served upon him also stood in the way. On an appeal the house failed to sustain the ruling and Walker called Representative Joe Odle, suffragist, to the chair.

Odle ordered a roll call on Riddick's motion for reconsideration. Walker made a point of order that there was no quorum, but was ignored and the suffragists defeated the motion to reconsider by a vote of 50 to 9.

Riddick then moved that the house transmit to the senate the senate joint resoluion ratifying the amendment. Again Walker made a point of no quorum. Again Odle ignored walker, ordered the roll call and the motion carried, 50 to 0, antis not voting. Adjournment until Monday afternoon then was taken. Anti-suffrage leaders declared the procedure of the suffragist majority today in killing the Walker motion for reconsideration could not be held legal.

Speakers Disagree

Speaker Walker insisted he could not sign the ratification resolution under the present circumstances.

Speaker Todd, of the senate, said the resolution needed no signatures and on this point the two speakers sharply disagreed.

The suffragists expressed pride in what they termed their "steam roller" tactics. They declared the legislative battle was over. This belief was shared by Governor Roberts and Attorney General Thompson.

First Wireless Around World

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—The first wireless message to be heard around the world was received today by Secretary Daniels from the LaFayette Radio Station at Bordeaux, France.

The message was the first to be sent from the LaFayette station, the largest in he world, which has just been completed by the United States navy and is undergoing official test before being turned over to the French government for operation. The message received by Secretary Daniels follows:

"This is the first wireless message to be heard around the world and marks a milestone on the road of scientific achievement."

ASK RECEIVER FOR BROTHERHOOD RAILWAY TRAINMEN

Demand Distribution of $10,000,000 Trust Fund

SAID TO BE WORK OF INSURGENTS

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 21.—Appointment of a receiver for the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, and an accouting and distribution of the brotherhood's trust fund, estimated at $10,000,000 is asked in a suit filed here today by Benjamin Callahan, head of the Columbus Yardmen's association.

The suit was filed by Callahan as an individual policy holder, but in effect is said to be action on the part of the Chicago Yardmen's association, the insurgent association which precipitated the recent "rump" strike of yardmen.

Want Fund Split.

The petition says there are 145,000 members of the outlaw organization and estimates their their share of the trust fund at $5,000,000.

The action was brought in the Franklin county courts here so that personal service could be obtained on Val Fitzpatrick first vice-president of the B. R. T. who lives here. In a separate suit against the B. of D. T., James Fowler, local member, charges that payment of an insurance policy of $1,600 for total disability, resulting injury to his eyes, March 21, was refused on the grounds that he had been implicated in the strike movement. He asks the full amount of the policy.

PONZI TURNS OVER MILLION IN CHECKS AND SECURITIES

Liabilities Are Estimated at $7,000,000 by Accountant

PONZI IGNORANT OF BUSINESS AFFAIRS

BOSTON, Aug. 21.—Charles Ponzi turned over to federal receivers today part of what remains from millions of dollars he received from investors in his discredited financial operations and went on the witness stand to tell about the rest. Little had been elicied as to his assets, however, when the receivers' hearing was adjourned until Tuesday next.

The checks and securities which Ponzi handed over as announced in the court room today, did not greatly excel a million dollars.

Edwin L. Pride, the accountant again estimated Ponzi's liabilities at $7,000,000. Ponzi said he had additional assets, but did not indicate their amount.

The only business of which Pride could find any trace, the auditor testified, was the issuing of notes for the amount of the investment, plus fifty percent and the payment of early notes by the receipts from later ones. There was nothing on Ponzi's books, he said, to indicate any business in international postal reply coupons.

Ignorant of Business Affairs.

Ponzi's replies to questions by counsel for the receivers indicated ignorance of the conduct of his business affairs. He did not know the names of his agents, was not familiar with his accounts in several banks and was in doubt how many persons were authorized to draw checks in his name. He said he left most of these things to Miss Lucy Meli, 18, who was manager of his office.

Ponzi said he was certain he had paid out to holders of matured notes or surrendered notes an aggrgate of $7 500,000 after his conference with authorities, July 26, and before payments were stopped two weeks later.

The sessions were continued until next Tuesday with a request by the receivers that Ponzi and Pride get together so that Ponzi might refresh his memory of business details.

First reports to Colonel Arnold from Corporal Rhoades, a trooper stationed at Pax were that machine guns were being used, but this was denied by officials of the Willis Branch Coal company.

In a statement late tonight A. J. O'Neill superintendent of the company, said:

"The mine guards did not start the shooting but that they were fired upon by striking miners hidden in the hills."

Machine Guns Being Used

Charleston, W. Va., Aug. 21.—Striking miners and private mine guards were tonight fighting at Cirtsville, Raleigh county, W. Va., according to advices received here by Colonel Jackson Arnold, commander of the state police from Corporal Rhoades who is stationed in that region.

He added that according to the message striking miners of the Weirwood Coal company were fighting the guards and that miners of the Willis Branch Coal company had joined the guards and were using machine guns. He made no mention of casualties.

Shots Heard for Ten Miles

Dr. C. C. Lee, secretary of the Willis Branch Coal company at Glen Jean, told the Charleston Gazette by telephone at 10 o'clock tonight that the shooting could be heard in Glen Jean, ten miles from Cirtsville. He said all efforts to get in touch with persons near Cirtsville had failed and that officials of the telephone company had informed him "the wires have been cut."

At 10:30 p. m., a representative of the Gazette talked with the Oak Hill Telephone company operator at Pax, two miles from the scene. She said the shooting could be heard plainly at Pax.

Two members of the state constabulary are in Cirtsville and several detachments of troopers have been ordered to proceed. There has been a strike of miners in progress in the new river district since last November.

Ancient Weapon Used In Suffrage Battle

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 21. Since the days when Andrew Johnson was merely a state figure in politics, a legislative "walkout" in connection with a filibuster has been a weapon invoked in the Tennessee legislature and all factions have resorted to it. The first "walkout" was staged in the senate in 1841 when thirteen Democratic senators one of whom was Andrew Johnson, broke a quorum to prevent the election of two Whigs to the United States senate the result being Tennessee was without representation there for two years. The thirteen senators are known in political tradition as the "immortal thirteen."

In 1885 to defeat a registration bill, Republican members of the state senate barricaded themselves in rooms in a hotel there. They were fed for three or four days by hauling baskets of provisions across the street on a rope trolley.

In 1909 to invalidate new election laws, Democratic senators broke a quorum and quietly left for Hopkinsville, Ky., remaining for a week. This filibuster failed under the holding of the supreme court. When the general assembly met January 2, 1911, 37 members, "regular" Democrats, refused to take the oath and tied up the legislative wheels until January 7 when an agreement was reached.

On April 13, 1911, the same session, "independent" Democrats and Republicans of the house broke a quorum, going to Decatur, Alabama, as a result of the capture of the house by "regular" Democrats and the jeopardizing of the election laws and the prohibition laws.

This "walkout" lasted a month the absentees returning May 11, not being molested. Deliberations finally were resumed June 23.

Will Talk to Railway Employes There Next Friday

CONFERS WITH COLONEL HARVEY

MARION, Ohio, Aug. 21. — Three front porch speeches and one at Galion, Ohio, next week, are on the schedule for Senator Harding.

The Galion address Friday to a gathering of railway employes, and the one on September at the Minnesota State Fair are the only engagements away from Marion that appear on the list of ten speeches. It was said these ten, the last of which is on September 17, were the only ones definitely scheduled, tho a number of others had been promised tentatively.

A feature next week will be a speech Tuesday to a delegation of stage and screen stars representing the Harding and Coolidge Theatrical League, who plan to put on a front porch entertainment for the nominee and his headquarters staff.

Most of today, Senator Harding spent in conference with Colonel George Harvey, the New York editor. It is understood they talked principally about the league of nations of which Colonel Harvey is an irreconcilable opponent, and that the new plan for an international court of justice, in progress of formulation by Elihu Root and European statesmen, had a large part in their discussion.

Colonel Harvey declined to discuss an opinion publicly but said he might have something to say after his talk with the nominee.

FOCH VOICES HIS FRIENDSHIP FOR AMERICA

Presented With Jeweled Baton and Marshal's Insignia

LAFAYETTE STATUE UNVEILED AT METZ

METZ, Alsace-Lorraine, Aug. 21—(By The Associated Press)—Marshal Foch standing at the foot of the statue of LaFayette just presented to Metz by the Knights of Columbus today voiced his friendship for America and received from the Knights a jeweled baton and insignia of his office as a marshal of France. He was obviously deeply moved when the baton cermoney took place.

It was decidedly a Foch day. The marshal headed a procession of Knights into the old cathedral saying to them:

"I have come to pray side by side with you for the American heroes in the war."

The ceremony at the statue brought out the population of Metz and hundreds from the surrounding country. The statue was veiled in silk, with an American flag near the base. Around the platform were grouped 3,000 children in native costume. Five thousand troops formed a guard of honor.

Supreme Knight Flaherty in presenting the statue, reminded those assembled of Pershing's famous words:

"LaFayette, we are here," and added:

"LaFayette we are still here."

The statue was dedicated by Martin H. Carmody and was accepted by the mayor of Metz and representatives of the various departments. Immediately after the ceremony Marshal Foch went to the foot of the monument, to which three little girls brought the case containing the baton which Mr. Flaherty presented.

BOLSHEVIKI USE STONE AGE TACTICS TO STEM DEFEAT

Imitate Maneuver of Nicholas I in 1831

RED FORCES FACE ANNIHILATION

PAFIS, Aug. 21.—(By The Associated Press.)—In the principal theatre of operation on the Polish front the Poles are advancing in the diretcion of Brest-Litovsk. They have reached the valley of the middle Bug.

The prisoners taken by the Poles in the last few days aggregate 19,000. The large amount of war material has not been estimated.

Many guns, with their carriages have been abandoned in the forests.

The chief operations are now going on in the fork of the Narew and Bug rivers, from which the Bolsheviki troops defeated before Warsaw are retreating hastily. The Polish harmony has as its objective the cutting of communications of the Bolsheviki center and right. Thus, it is between Ostralenka and Lomza and the enemy probably will make his last effort before the fate of the Red army in the north the situation of which is extremely grave, is decided.

In imitation of the maneuver executed in 1831 by Nichols L. the Bolsheviki have withdrawn a strong section of their forces to attack Thorn and Wloclawek, across the Vistula, and cut communications between Danzig and Warsaw.

These troops have encountered a fresh Polish army. Meanwhile another army, advancing from Modlin has attacked them from the south. A third army is defending the Narew river endeavoring to cut off these troops from their single road of retreat in the north.

Scattered over nearly one hundred miles along the frontier of East Prussia between Strasbourg and Ostralenka, these Red forces seem condemned to annihilation unless they take refuge on Prussian territory.

In order to diminish pressure between the Narew and the Bug the Bolsheviki have undertaken a demonstration on the Galician front, attacking on the Strippa. Their cavalry has crossed the upper Bug and Cossack patrols are appearing some leagues before Lemberg. This operation, however, is considered as too belated to effect any change in the situation on the middle Bug or to effect the issue of the battle now going on north of the Narew, in which the fate of the main Bolshevik armies apparently is being decided.

The high Polish command is reported to be fully aware that the forces of the Bolsheviki and have taken precautions to prevent a surprise.

REVENGE MOTIVE FOR TODD KILLING

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—Revenge and not robbery, was the motive in the murder of James R. Todd, white dining car steward, who was shot to death on a Pennsylvania line train as it entered the city, August 9, according to a confession, police say, J. T. Todd, a negro, made today.

According to police, the negro said he was discharged a year ago by the steward and that he boarded the train at the outskirts of the city to "get even with his former employer."

"I hit him on the head with my revolver, not intending to kill him at first," police quote the negro as saying. "Then, when I saw him on the floor I thought I'd better shoot him a couple of times to make sure he had enough."

EFFORT BEING MADE TO FIND MISSING PERSONS

Twenty Nine Missing as Result of Steamer Collision

CAPTAINS DISAGREE AS TO STATE OF WEATHER

SAULT STE MARIE, Mich, Aug. 21.—Coast guards and lake steamers conducted a futile search tonight for survivors of the steamer Superior City, which went down off White Fish Point late Friday night after a collision with the Willis L. King, according to meager reports reaching here.

Twenty-eight members of the crew and one woman were missing and the four survivors who were brought here had all but abandoned hope for their rescue owing to the short time that elapsed between the collision and an explosion in the boiler room which completely wrecked the stern of the steel ore carrier.

SAULT STE MARIE, Mich, Aug. 21.—In the faint hope that some of the 29 persons missing following the sinking in Lake Superior last night of the freighter, Superior City after it collided with the steamer Willis L. King still might be alive, life savers and a tug searched the waters in the vicinity of White Fish Point today. Late today no word had been received from the searchers.

Four members of the crew of the Superior City, including Captain Sawyers were rescued. Walter Richter of Lorraine, Ohio, boatsmain of the Superior City and one of the men saved is in a local hospital. He was badly injured but clung to a piece of wreckage in the water. Richter declared the ships collided within two minutes after the captain's warning had been sounded, and that members of the crew had no time to escape.

Peter Jacobson, Cleveland, who was at the wheel when the ship was rammed declared that the King bore down upon them after the exchange of the usual signals. The sea was calm and the weather was rather hazy but he could easily distinguish the lights of the King, e declared.

Captain Nelson of the King, however, maintained that a fog enveloped the vessels and was responsible for the accident.

Plans were begun late today by owners of the vessels for an investigation of the accident.

PLACE IS SCENE OF WILSON MURDER

BELFAST, Aug. 21.—Intense excitement prevails in Templemore, county Tipperary, the scene of the recent murder of Police Inspector Wilson, over what are reported to be wierd manifestations of healing.

DEMOCRATS WAVERED ON CAMPAIGN ISSUE

AUGUSTA, Me., Aug. 21.—Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee today opened his party's campaign in this state for election of members of congress with a speech in which he asserted that Governor Cox was dominated by President Wilson and four unnamed "bosses."

The Democratic candidate appeals to "both the Wilson and the anti-Wilson faction of his party," declared Mr. Hays. "To former he holds forth the president's platform. To the latter, he exhibits himself as an advocate of complete change in admin istration. He offers to the country for foreign use the Wilson covenant and for domestice service Tammany Hall—truly a marvelous combination of impotence and ill-repute."

Mr. Hays devoted much of his speech to campaign funds, denying that the Republican party planned to expend excessive sums.

Denies Cox Statement.

Also denying that millions had "gone into the Republican treasury," from "certain interests banded together to buy the presidency"—a statement which he credited to Governor Cox—Mr. Hays declared this amounted to a charge of conspiracy to betray the country.

Referring to the Republican plan to limit individual contributions to $1,000, Mr. Hays said:

"If this attempt fails to produce the requisite sums, we shall so state publicly, increase the maximum, and seek additional contributions."

Declaring that the party needed about $3,000,000, Mr. Hays said no criticism of the Democrats for seeking the largest obtainable contributions would be offered.

"Nor shall we in resentful emulation of the positive charges of the Democraic candidates so much as intimate that their responsible officers will use any part of their fund corruptly," he said

"Frankly and squarely, as between mutual respecting citizens, we don't believe they will or would if they could.

"But I give fair warning now that neither the Republican candidates nor management will take false aspersions lying down. If, at the decision of our adversaries the campaign shall finally resolve into a question of personal characters, we know of no reason, aside from natural distaste, which we should not meet that issue as readily as any other."

Mr. Hays accused the Democrats of indecision in selecting an issue about which to rally.

Of Republican willingness to meet them on whatever ground they chose, Mr. Hays said:

"When they conecentrated upon the league covenant without the dotting of an 'i' or the crossing of a 't' we met them squarely.

"When they pronounced the covenant only a 'secondary issue' after all, we acquiesced. When the candidates reversed their national chairman and declared the Wilson league the sole issue, we accepted most readily. Where next they will land is wholly conjectural."

The ultimate choice of the Democratic party is a matter of indifference to the Republicans, Mr. Hays declared, adding:

"Our sole requirement is that This referendum is going to be more than solemn. Before ended it will have comprised every phase of maladministration and every fleck of Wilsonitis that have brought untold miseries to a people who have every right to be prosperous and contented."

TAXATION WITHOUT REPRESENTATION.

The Benson (Neb.) Times: "No northern taxpayer has any license whatever to vote the national Democratic ticket. The north supplies 90 per cent of all funds for federal government requirements, yet the south, which supplies only 10 per cent, has dictated the expenditure of the entire 100 per cent. If this is not taxation without representation we would like to know what it is! It may be sectionalism to argue along such lines, but it might be well to remember that it was denial of this identical principle that resulted in the birth of this country as a free and independent republic.

"Presidential elections are decided in the north because every one of the debatable states is located in that section. The electoral vote of the south is always a unit for any man who secures the Democratic nomination, regardless of his qualifications. There would be nothing inherently objectionable in this were it not for the fact that in the national legislation five northern votes only equal one southern vote—in other words, 8,000 votes in the south send a man to the lower house of congress, while in the north 40,000 votes are required.

"The one great fear of the south—Negro domination — is, perhaps, justified, and, as far as we are able to learn, there is no disposition on the part of the north to interfere with local conditions, but when those conditions are amplified and actually made the sure and certain nucleus for complete domination in all national affairs that is something else again, and we are obliged to confess that when we vote for taxation without representation. We wonder if the self-evident truth of the confession can be successfully disputed?"

WHEN DO WE EAT?

Most people think their food is produced in the corner grocery store and meat market, says R. B. Thompson of Salem, Ohio, in an article entitled "When Do We Eat?" in the Banker-Farmer, published by the American Bankers Association.

It is the lack of misunderstanding of food sources on the part of so many city residents regarding the whole vast problem of food and fibre production which has made it difficult for rural leaders and the rural press to get across, to the people who really ought to be interested, the very serious food situation which now and for the immediate future confronts them. For I very much fear that some people in the cities will be asking next winter in almost tragic whisper, "When do we eat?'

"The city press, especially the daily press, has been until very recently indifferent to the changing balance between agriculture and general industry in America. When a reecnt survey of the state and federal departments of agriculture in Michigan disclosed that there were 30,300 abandoned farm houses in that great industrial state, and that of the 230,000 men left on the farms a great majority are above fifty years of age; that during the past three years the man power of Michigan's farms has been reduced 46,000, to say nothing of the wives, mothers and sisters who have accompanied the men and boys from the farms to the industrial centers—that when these astounding facts were made known, it should have constituted one of the biggest human interest news stories for the metropolitan press of Michigan and adjoining states since the signing of the Armistice.

"But, was it handled? It most emphatically was not, and the hurried urban reader, casually glancing over the half submerged half column, turned very quickly to the more entertaining, sporting, society, financial or sensational crime news, wholly and absolutely unimpressed—sublimely trustful of the ability of the corner or meat market to supply his food wants indefinitely.

"And when a similar survey showed 24,000 farm houses vacant in New York state at the very moment when people were crowding into the cities and towns so rapidly that they were compelled to live in crowded apartments and even in tents the big, outstanding fact which impressed the metropolitan press of the greatest metropolis of the world was that New York's cities were confronted with a housing problem and a rent profiteering problem, and that something ought to be done about it!"

Thompson recently addressed the Ohio Bankers Association and advised the bankers above all other business men to consider the question of "When do we eat?" seriously. "Whether you will it or not, the banker has got to sooner or later concern himself in the maintenance of a perfect balance in the nation's economic life," said Thompson.

"PASSERS BY" WILL BE THE TALK OF THE TOWN

The chances are that those who went to the Rialto Theatre yesterday and saw J. Stuart Blackton's Pathe production of C. Hadden Chamber's play, "Passers By" are still thinking about it.

Anything that gets under the skin as does this powerful photoplay, cannot avoid being the talk of the town for the proverbial nine days.

Herbert Rawlinson invests the leading role of Peter Waverton, the wealthy bachelor who entertained the passers by, with tenderness and understanding.

He is given the support of three of the best character actors it has been our good fortune to see in a long time.

These are Tom Lewis as the Kindly cabby; William J. Ferguson as the very dignified valet, and Dick Lee as the vagabond.

The feminine end of the cast is well upheld by Leila Valentine as Waverton's old love; Ellen Cassity as the new, and Pauline Coffyn as the sister.

Charles Stuart Blackton, the six-year-old son of the producer, brought forth ohs and ahs of delight from the audience.

It is seldom a picture with the quaint charm, the unique story and the beauty of theme and the artistry of treatment of "Passers By" passes by our way. Don't let opportunity to see it pass by. It remains at the Rialto Theatre Monday, Aug. 23.

Y. M. C. A. NEWS

The fear that now is not a good time to raise money was scoffed at at Pontias, Mich., when $25,000 was raised to remodel the old building and pay off a current debt of six years' standing. It was led by the best business men of the town, who had been watching but not working in the association.

A pay-as-you-go plan was taken on by the directors at Monmouth, Ill., on entering its new building. Over the secretary's desk is the motto furnished by association men, "It can be done." The chairman of the finance committee facing the demand of $1,500 over receipts, said "Sure, anything is possible if we have a clear case, present it to the community in a forceful way, and have delivered the goods on a bold all round program."

A telegram announces that Mr. Julius Rosewald renews his offer of $25,000 to erect city colored buildings.

Out of 1,400 Poona High school boys, medically inspected, 550 were suffering from disease. India has 4,797 boys in high school, 1,500 of them sons of influential people of the higher classes. The Y only is attempting to direct their lives.

Employed boys of Chicago need the Y. M. C. A. program, reported a wage-earning boys' commission of business men. So an employed boys' secretary has been added to set up through the various departments a comprehensive city-wide program for its 205,000 employed boys there.

Poor food and improper living conditions put Peoria boys in the delinquent school. Physical work put on by the association helps to restore them. Their principal tells of improved school work following organized recreation, of greater regularity in attendance and closer application to work.

Ask Miss Laura White about the help the local Y gave the Jacksonville Junior High boys.

TAXATION WITHOUT REPRESENTATION.

The Benson (Neb.) Times: "No northern taxpayer has any license whatever to vote the national Democratic ticket. The north supplies 90 per cent of all funds for federal government requirements, yet the south, which supplies only 10 per cent, has dictated the expenditure of the entire 100 per cent. If this is not taxation without representation we would like to know what it is! It may be sectionalism to argue along such lines, but it might be well to remember that it was denial of this identical principle that resulted in the birth of this country as a free and independent republic.

"Presidential elections are decided in the north because every one of the debatable states is located in that section. The electoral vote of the south is always a unit for any man who secures the Democratic nomination, regardless of his qualifications. There would be nothing inherently objectionable in this were it not for the fact that in the national legislation five northern votes only equal one southern vote—in other words, 8,000 votes in the south send a man to the lower house of congress, while in the north 40,000 votes are required.

"The one great fear of the south—Negro domination — is, perhaps, justified, and, as far as we are able to learn, there is no disposition on the part of the north to interfere with local conditions, but when those conditions are amplified and actually made the sure and certain nucleus for complete domination in all national affairs that is something else again, and we are obliged to confess that when we vote for taxation without representation. We wonder if the self-evident truth of the confession can be successfully disputed?"

WHEN DO WE EAT?

Most people think their food is produced in the corner grocery store and meat market, says R. B. Thompson of Salem, Ohio, in an article entitled "When Do We Eat?" in the Banker-Farmer, published by the American Bankers Association.

It is the lack of misunderstanding of food sources on the part of so many city residents regarding the whole vast problem of food and fibre production which has made it difficult for rural leaders and the rural press to get across, to the people who really ought to be interested, the very serious food situation which now and for the immediate future confronts them. For I very much fear that some people in the cities will be asking next winter in almost tragic whisper, "When do we eat?'

"The city press, especially the daily press, has been until very recently indifferent to the changing balance between agriculture and general industry in America. When a reecnt survey of the state and federal departments of agriculture in Michigan disclosed that there were 30,300 abandoned farm houses in that great industrial state, and that of the 230,000 men left on the farms a great majority are above fifty years of age; that during the past three years the man power of Michigan's farms has been reduced 46,000, to say nothing of the wives, mothers and sisters who have accompanied the men and boys from the farms to the industrial centers—that when these astounding facts were made known, it should have constituted one of the biggest human interest news stories for the metropolitan press of Michigan and adjoining states since the signing of the Armistice.

"But, was it handled? It most emphatically was not, and the hurried urban reader, casually glancing over the half submerged half column, turned very quickly to the more entertaining, sporting, society, financial or sensational crime news, wholly and absolutely unimpressed—sublimely trustful of the ability of the corner or meat market to supply his food wants indefinitely.

"And when a similar survey showed 24,000 farm houses vacant in New York state at the very moment when people were crowding into the cities and towns so rapidly that they were compelled to live in crowded apartments and even in tents the big, outstanding fact which impressed the metropolitan press of the greatest metropolis of the world was that New York's cities were confronted with a housing problem and a rent profiteering problem, and that something ought to be done about it!"

Thompson recently addressed the Ohio Bankers Association and advised the bankers above all other business men to consider the question of "When do we eat?" seriously. "Whether you will it or not, the banker has got to sooner or later concern himself in the maintenance of a perfect balance in the nation's economic life," said Thompson.

Have You Seen the F. B. Battery Cover?
The F. B. Battery Cover is an absolute essential for the protection of the battery. Without it the top of the battery quickly becomes covered with mud and dirt, which becomes acid soaked, not only causing a leakage of the current and soon runs down the battery, but also causes undue corrosion, disintegration of the terminals and the battery box proper which in a short time absolutely ruins the complete battery.

Have You Seen the F. B. Battery Cover?
The F. B. Battery Cover is an absolute essential for the protection of the battery. Without it the top of the battery quickly becomes covered with mud and dirt, which becomes acid soaked, not only causing a leakage of the current and soon runs down the battery, but also causes undue corrosion, disintegration of the terminals and the battery box proper which in a short time absolutely ruins the complete battery.

FORCE OF PUBLIC OPINION TO SETTLE LABOR PROBLEMS

Cox Says More Effective Than the Bayonet

TALKS ABOUT BIG CAMPAIGN FUND

CANTON, O., Aug. 21.—Labor problems, the league of nations and Republican campaign contributions were featured by Governor Cox in an address here tonight and also at an afternoon meeting at Orville, Ohio.

Settlement of industrial controversies by force of public opinion instead of the bayonet while order is maintained and neither side aided by the government, was urged by the governor here tonight at the Auditorium. The labor issue was emphasized in this industrial community in which Gov. Cox figured during the steel strike last fall for refusing to send troops and also by removing a Democratic mayor.

"Large interests are contributnor Cox who said this campaign fund," he said, "because they want to buy an administration under which soldiers and the bayonet will be used to settle difficulties."

That $15,000,000 will be the "low mark" of the Republican campaign fund, while the Democrats will be as "poor as Job's turkey" was asserted by Governor Cox, who said his campaign fund had not been denied. He challenged denial and promised to present evidence of his charges.

On the league issue, Governor Cox declared "there cannot be an economical readjustment in America until things are tied together in other parts of the world," and reiterated drguments that America should enter the league to "keep faith" with American soldiers and the allies. ## HEAVY FIGHTING AROUND CIECHANOW

All Civilians in Posen District are Mobilizing—Poles Equip Bombing Airplanes.

Posen, Aug. 21.—Heavy fighting is going on around Ciechanow, northwest of Warsaw, due to the efforts of the Poles to cut off two Russian divisions in the Danzig corridor. A Bolshevik division is being held at Mlawa to aid in the escape of the divisions should the battle prove unfavorable to them.

All civilians in the Posen district from the age of 17 to 50 years are mobilizing. It is stated officially that 300,000 fresh Poles will be ready to take the field within a month. Women are drilling with the men. Twenty five members of women's battalions have been captured. Their fate is not known.

The Poles have just equipped three squadrons of bombing airplanes of ten machines each. They have received a number of two seater fighting planes. The bombing machines already are in action. Neutral aviators who accompanied an expedition behind the lines say they witnessed an entire Bolshevik company blown up by one bomb. Dissatisfaction here with the military and political situation resulted in opponents of the Warsaw government drawing up a proclamation declaring Posen's independence of Russia and Austrian Poland. The date of its issue had been fixed when a member of the government arrived and secretly conferred with those who drafted it and reached some compromise.

Posen is crowded with refugees from Warsaw. They do not seem to be discouraged over the situation. The cafes are being patronized nightly by merry and gaily dressed women and men.

EXCELLENT PROGRAMS GIVEN AT CHAUTAUQUA

Second Day's Events Fully Met Expectations of Large Audiences Morning, Afternoon and Evening—Fine Program Today.

The second day of the Jacksonville chautauqua proved a success in every particular. The weather was not altogether ideal for such an event, but the attendance was large and the program morning, afternoon and evening excellent. At 11 o'clock Dr. Cobb gave a lecture on "America and Its Romance.' Dr. Cobb is proving an ideal platform manager and is making a very favorable impression with the people. At 2:15 p. m., the Bohemian Orchestra gave a concert program and this was fully as well received as were the orchestra's appearances the opening day.

The speaker of the afternoon was Rabbi Emanuel Sternheim of Chicago, and his subject "Ideals In Business and Education." The lecture had in it much to lead to serious thought on the part of the auditors and those who heard the speaker's words were led to a new relization of the meaning and power of ideals. The speaker said in part:

"I am told this is an educational and cultured community, so I am expecting much from the audience. It is a great privilege to speak before such an audience and to have a part in such a splendid chautauqua program as this. I want to leave with you some abiding thoughts on a fundamental subject, and I will discuss ideals, or perhaps better, the want of them.

Business Ideals Vary.

"It is difficult to discuss ideals in business. The laborer has his opinions, the business man has his, the social reformer, the dreamer, the preacher, the teacher, all have their opinions. The farmer has another set of opinions. It is easy to summarize the opinions of any one of these groups but it is not easy to state the opinions or ideals of all the groups taken as a whole. Ideals are standards of action and conduct to which leaders in every line conform.

"The first point I would bring to you is that the doctrine of individual responsibility is not getting enough education. Religion, politics and most of our thoughts come to us largely as a matter of birth and not of self-election. Most of us are too lazy to think out anything new for ourselves. It is for this reason that our education should have much to do with ideals. Our children must be trained in ideals that are higher than our own ideals which will raise the general standard of life. By the raising of the ideals of the body politic the whole standard of civilization may itself be raised. If we can get something of this viewpoint I believe the unrest which faces us today will in large measure pass away. The standards of business life tomorrow depend upon the personal standards of the men and women who will go into business tomorrow.

"When we use the term 'cold-blooded business proposition' we usually mean a transaction in which the quality of mercy is altogether lacking, something which may be within the letter of the law but which must bring moral condemnation. This conception of business is one which gives food for thought to those of us who place business upon a higher plane. The great outstanding, dominant ideal which has moulded business life in America is individualism. Tho we are a democracy and talk a great deal about democracy, we are the most intensely individualistic nation on the face of the earth. This makes it difficult to adjust our lives to the new note of civilization—the considering of the good of the whole as opposed to the good of the individual. Private property and private rights must be carefully guarded but in the new era private property and private rights will be held sacred only so long as they conform to the good of the greater whole.

Praises Rotary Club.

"Much has already been done in business to raise the standards and to achieve higher ideals, and I am not here to quarrel with things as they are. The individual is in business to make a livelihood or perhaps more. Yet he is often happiest when in addition to serving his own private purposes he is also endeavoring to serve the community. The Rotary club and the other high types of commercial organizations typify the new ideals of American business.

"Business for profit is legitimate and the life blood of the nation. Business for profit at any cost is quite another thing. Success in business is a laudable ideal but success at any cost is not.

"We have set up efficiency in business as one of the greatest ideals, and in a measure it is a great ideal. But we must not have the ideal of efficiency at any cost.

"Another dominant ideal is that of service. The Rotary club has service as its slogan and there are other organizations which lay a like stress upon the word. The ideal in business np until about fifteen years ago was 'Get as much for your product as possible, by whatever means possible,' This ideal has been largely replaced by the higher one, 'Make the customer wholly satisfied.'

"Business has already reached these three great basic ideals—to give the customer the best value obtainable; to promote the welfare of all persons engaged in business and to co-operate with the government in all ways to aid the national welfare. For my part I do not see any overwhelming evidence of progress as the result of the great world war, but at one point it brought great value to America, and that is in the splendid way in which business men subordinated their own interests to the government welfare during the period of the war. This has taught us a lesson the results of which I think will neevr pass. This is a concrete illustration of the great fundamental of democracy—the relation of the individual or smallest organization to the great body politic. The employer now knows that the employe is worth more to him in dollars and cents if the employe is working under sanitary, ideal conditions.

Uniformity In Education.

"Education is itself an ideal or rather the evolution of an ideal. Many do not realize that we in America have only had compulsory education for a comparatively brief time. We have not yet compulsory elementary education in every state in the union, and what we need is uniform laws in education. We who live in the forward educational states have a definite responsibility for the other states. In the final analysis the standards of those states react upon our own status. Until we get uiformity in education we shall never make any real progress.

"The chief aim of edcation is to teach people to live well. We cannot live well unless we are efficient and anxious to render service. Take the example of Germany. I won't go back to a description of the war days, but I want to say to you that Germany gave us a great outstanding example of the value of uniformity in education and the value of a consistent educational Policy. For 40 years Germany concentrated its efforts upon militarism, used pulpit, press and public school toward that end. My plea is that we take a lesson from Germany. As she taught militarism for forty years, let us teach idealism for forty years, teach the children the glory of democratic ideals; teach our boys and girls to understand the meaning of social unity, to understand the relation of individual to community, to attain the highest possible pinnacle of personal success while always mindful of the good of humanity as a whole. Then we will have a generation with democracy as a part of its very life blood, attuned to the highest human ideals—a generation truly American.

Plea for American Teachers.

"In the under-estimation by America of the altruistic professions there is a great and real danger. The ideals which I have just outlined must be impressed upon our children in their early years. We owe it to those men and women who are spending their lives in the service of our children to give them all that we can in dollars and cents, and all that we can in social prestige and social honor. Are we doing it? I think not. What would any of you fathers do for a child of yours if it was stricken upon a bed of sickness? If the doctor in your village did not measure up to your standards you would send to a distant city to get the best medical attention possible. You would stay up day and night and mortgage everything you had for that child's welfare.

"When you send your child to the American public school, the nursery of democracy of tomorrow, you are entrusting that child's life to the care of the teacher more hours than you have it under your care. Shall not that teacher have the same status as the doctor and the preacher? Shall they not be accorded the same measure of justice and honor?

"I am not opposed to vocational training, but I want America to remember that a vocational training which is one-sided—which is not coupled with a high cultural ideal—will in the final analysis land America in a morass of materialism.

"Achievement" 20th Century Epitaph.

"The epitaph of the nineteenth century was largely written by Germany and it is the word 'boasting.' I would like for the epitaph of the twentieth century to be 'achievement.' We must not lose sight of the practical but must remember that in the final analysis the creative faculties, which are the source of true life, conception of life's meaning. We must be carried over into the school life. We must put into our American education a deeper spirituality—ideals of truth, beauty and goodness, an ethical conception of life's meaning. We must give our children a proper conception of the relationship of the individual to the body politic. Every American parent must feel his responsibilty for the America of tomorrow.

Love the New Note.

"We must build a civilization founded upon love and human brotherhood. The demand upon the American business man of the future must be 'Does the business build up the life of all the men, women and children concerned in it?' 'Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself' must be the new note of the twentieth century. Thus will the America of tomorrow be idealized?"

The evening program began at 7:30 with a grand concert by the Bohemian orchestra and it was with genuine regret that the large company present heard the final number on their program. The selections by the orchestra were given with trure musicianly skill and were of such a varied character that the hearers found not a dull moment in the entire time consumed by the performance. Rabbi Steinheim was heard in another lecture, in the course of which his auditors were given much food for thought. Rabbi Sternheim has great platform ability and the lectures here can be classed among the best ever given from the local chautauqua platform.

St. Louis Stars Leading Hitters In Both Leagues

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—Players in the National League who last week were leaders in their specialties continued to set the pace, according to averages released today, which include games of Wednesday.

Roger Hornsby, the St. Louis star, who topped the list of batters participating in 50 or more games a week ago with an average of .372 retained the same mark altho he played in eight games during the week. However he increased his lead in total bases to .245 or 162 hits which include 32 doubles fifteen triples and seven homers. Eayrs of Boston altho dropping three points, continued to be the runnerup with .353, while Nicholson of Pittsburgh stepped in front of Roush of Cincinnati for third place, with a mark of .341. The Cincinnati outfielder slumped five points for an average of .327 which ties him with J. Smith of St. Louis for fourth place.

Cy Williams, the Philadelphia outfielder, failed to swell his home run total of 13. Max Carey of Pittsburgh negotiated a quartette of stolen bases and is showing the way with 42.

George Sisler, St. Louis' star first baseman, has been having a great time with the willow during the past week, and as a result has dethroned Tris Speaker, manager of the Cleveland Indians in the American League for the leadership among the players who have participated in 50 or more games. Sisler is batting .408, an increase of four points over last week, while Speaker has dropped 17 points to .400. Joe Jackson, the Chicago slugger, and Babe Ruth, the home run king, each suffered a slump in their hitting, but are sticking among the leaders, being tied for third place. Each is batting .380.

Ruth made only one home run from Wednesday a week ago to last Wednesday, when the averages were compiled. He had up to this time gathered 42 circuit drives. His total base record has been increased to 303 bases, and as a run getter he has counted 127 times. Rice, of Washington, continued to set the pace among the base stealers with a total of 45 thefts, two of them which were added during the week.

Ty Cobb, Detroit's star, who showed signs of climbing among the leading batters, has not kept up the pace he set a couple of weeks ago. He is hitting .312 compared with .341 a week ago.

"Bubbles" Hargrave of St. Paul, has been having a field day among the American Association players the past week. Hitting .323 and in eighth place among the players who had participated in 50 or more games, Hargrave went on a batting rampage which boosted his average to .337, putting hime in tie with Wickland, of Toledo, for second place. The pair pushed Grover Hartley of Columbus, who is topping the list with a mark of .351.

Hargrave not only went into second place in batting, but he is only one run behind Dressen, of St. Paul, in the number of runs scored, and has taken the lead from Good of Kansas City for total base honors. His 131 hits gave him a total of 227 bases which include 26 doubles, eleven triples and 16 homers. This latter specialty has placed him in a tie with Bunny Brief of Kansas City for circuit drive honors.

Other leading batters: Wade, Minneapolis, .335; Rondeau, Minneapolis, .333; Dubuc, Toledo, .333; Good, Kansas City, .322; Rehg, Indianapolis, .321; Rapp, St. Paul, .321; Hyatt, Toledo, .320; Sweeney, Kansas City, .317; Lamar, Louisville, 316.

Only slight changes were made among the leading batters of the Southern Association during the past week. H. Allen, of New Orleans, made the best showing with the willow and advanced from fifteenth place, among those who have played 50 or more games, to ninth place. The other leaders who are topped by Harper, of Little Rock, with an average of .352 remained practically in the same positions held last week.

Harper continues to lead in total bases with 243; Carroll of Memphis, leads in runs scored with 87 and in stolen bases with 41, while E. Miller, of Little Rock, retained his lead in home runs with 16.

Other leading batters: Ellis, Birmingham, .339! Carroll, Memphis, .323; Burke, Nashville, .321; E. Miller, Little Rock, .321; Bernsen, Birmingham, .317; McLarry, Memphis, .316; Barnhart, Birmingham, .301; H. Allen, New Orleans, .298; Wingo, Atlanta, .295.

Western League batters who made up the first ten last week continued to set the pace for the others in the league who have played in 50 or more games. One or two changed positions but the margins are slight. East of Wichita, continues at the head of the list with .336. Bogart, Joplin, is the runner-up with .353 and Yaryan, Wichita, is third with .349. In addition Yaryan continued his lead in total bases with 255. He failed to increase his string of home runs during the week, and they remain at 20. Pitt of Oklahoma City retained his lead as a run getter, having scored 87 times. Lee of New Orleans with his 20 stolen bases continued to show the way to the base stealers.

Other leading batters: Pitt, Oklahoma City, .322; Shestak, St. Joseph, .330; Crouch, Sioux City, .328; Beck, Wichita, .326; Lindimore, Oklahoma City, .323; Levivelt, Omaha, 320; Platte, Omaha, .319.

CARL MAYS WILL BE BACK IN GAME SOON

Made His First Appearance On the Field Saturday Since the Accident Which Resulted in Ray Chapman's Death — Ty Cobb Hissed by New York Fans.

New York, Aug. 21. — Carl Mays, pitcher of the New York American league club, will probably be in the game against Detroit tomorrow. Mays today made his first appearance on the field since the accident which resulted in the death of Ray Chapman. The Yankee pitcher warmed up today, but after the game with Detroit started, he went to the club house. The fact that Mays indulged in practice was taken as an indication that Manager Huggins intends to work him in his regular turn and it was said that if Mays had sufficiently recovered from the shock of the accident, he would pitch tomorrow.

Ty Cobb, of the Detroit team, who was quoted in Boston as saying some drastic action should be taken against Mays because of the Chapman accident, was today made a target for abuse by the New York fans. When Cobb first appeared for preliminary practice he was met with a storm of hisses and booes and these were repeated each time he went to bat.

Call Special Meeting

Boston, Aug. 21. — A special meeting of the American league club owners has been called for next Tuesday at Philadelphia, President H. H. Frazee of the Boston club said today.

President Johnson of the league in issuing the call gave no reason for the meeting but Mr. Frazee said he thought the death of Chapman and the league's attitude toward Pitcher Mays, who threw the ball which killed him, would be considered.

President Jonnson is understood to have obtained a statement on the accident from Manager Speaker of the Cleveland club, who was reported so much affected by the player's death that he was unable to accompany his team here today.

THAYER WILL COME FOR BATTLE TODAY

Visitors Have Strong Lineup With Padgett on the Rubber—Earl Clark Will Catch for Indees.

Weather conditions perimtting there will be a warm game at South Side park this afternoon when Thayer and the Indees hook up in battle.

The visitors come with a good reputation and have some well known players in their lineup. Among them are Padgett, who pitched for the Indees last season and a part of this season and Mahan who played here last year. Windy Richardson the well known Virden catcher will also be in the Thayer lineup.

Catcher Grady asked Manager Smith to permit him to play with Myers Brothers the remainder of the season. They are going to have a city series over there and Grady wanted to get in on the money for which no one blames him.

Smith was fortunate in getting Earl Clark of Mt. Sterling to catch for the Indees. Clark has been seen here with Bluffs and is a first class receiver. He is also a good sticker and the Indees will be fully as strong as before.

While it is not known who will work for the Indees it probably will be Patrick, tho Wright may draw the assignment. If Pat is right he will beat Thayer or any other team. The teams will line up as follows:

SPEEDIEST WATERCRAFT IS ENTERED IN REGETTA

The Gold Cup Event Is a 90-Mile Affair Run in Three 30-Mile Heats—Miss America Has Speed of 80 Miles Per Hour.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 21.—Six of the speediest watercraft in the world are entered for the gold cup race, feature event of the regatta of the Amercian Powerboat association to be held in the Detroit river Sept. 11 to 15. Among them is Miss America, with which Garfield Wood lifted the Harmsworth trophy off Cowes, England. Miss Detroit V., another contender in the Harmsworth races, also is entered.

The Gold Cup event is a 90-mile affair to be run in three 30-mile heats over a circular course of five miles. Other events to be run during the regatta include the Carl Fisher $5,000 Gold Trophy race, the Detroit News trophy, the Sallan cup race and a free for all for which Garfield Wood has offered $5,000 in cash.

Besides the two hydroplanes that Wood took over seas, there will be entered in the Gold Cup event according to present plans, the Miss Toronto of the Toronto Motor Boat association Miss New Orleans of New Orleans Yacht club, Miss Detroit III of the Detroit Yacht club, and Miss Belle Isle of theDetroit Boat club.

The point system of scoring will be used in determining the winner of the Gold Cup race. Under this system, a contestant receives one point for starting, a point for finishing and a point for each boat it bests in the race.

Wood will drive Miss America. It is declared that in a trial over a mile course shortly after her completion at Algonac, Mich., Miss America attained a speed of 80 miles an hour. She is equipped with two six-cylinder engines each developing 450 horsepower. Motor boat enthusiasts are predicting that a new world's record will be established in the gold cup event. The speed record for the race was made by Miss Detroit I., at Minneapolis several years ago, when "Gar" Wood piloted her at the rate of 56.5 miles an hour in one lap. In winning the race that contest, Wood averaged 54.14 miles an hour for the 90 miles.

The Carl Fisher race will be run in three heats of 50 miles each. It is open to displacement craft of 32 feet or longer and the contestants must each carry four passengers, Edsel Ford has entered his cruiser in this race and will drive it personally, according to announcement.

The Detroit News trophy will be run in one heat of ten miles and is a free for all cruiser event.

The Sallan cup event is for cabin cruisers with a speed of not more than 14 miles an hour. It will be run in three heats of 22 1-2 miles each.

EDWARDSVILLE LEADS IN FIREMEN'S TOURNAMENT

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 21—Final championship contests of the Illinois Firemen's Tournament at the Illinois State Fair were again postponed this afternoon because of wet grounds. The Edwardsville department is leading in the tournament, having won both the hook and ladder and hose contests. Peru added another victory in winning the novelty hose coupling championship. Concluding events will be run tomorrow.

WILL RUN OLYMPIC MARATHON RACE TODAY

Course Measures Nearly 27 Miles, There Being a Dirt or Cinder Path Most of the Way—Route Will Be Kept Free of Traffic During Race.

Antwerp, Aug. 21.—(By The Associated Press). — The chief marathon race — the Olympic classic—will be run tomorrow on a course that measures exactly 42.75 kilometers (nearly 27 miles). There are dire or cinder paths most of the way. Both the start and the finish will be at the stadium. The road leads thru several small villages. The runners will follow main Belgian highways for most of the distance.

Like nearly all Belgian roads, these highways are payed in the center with brick, and on each side with dirt or cinders which will make easy footing for the runners. Each nation is permitted four competitors but some of them will have only one or two runners.

The route is to be kept free from traffic during the race by Belgian soldiers. Officials at several points will check the progress of the runners. Among the nations entering are the United States, England, South Africa, Holland, Canada, Italy, Chile, Czecho Slovakia, Denmark, Finland, Sweden, India, Belgium, France, Japan, Australia, Greece and Esthonia.

In the first modern Olympiad the race was won by Loues, a Greek, at Athens.

The second, at Paris, was won by Tetoe, a Frenchman. The third at St. Louis, by Hicks, an American; the fourth at London by Johnny Hayes of America, and the fifth at Stockholm by the South African, McArthur.

SAN ANTONIO CATCHER GOES TO BOSTON

San Antonio, Texas, Aug. 21.—Catcher Gibson, of the San Antonio, Texas, league club has been sold to the Boston Nationals it has been announced.

U. S. Has Large Lead Over Its Competitors

ANTWERP, Aug. 21. — (By The Associted Press).—The title of the world's best all around athlete lies tonight between Brutus K. Hamilton of the University of Missouri, and Captain Helge Loveland of the Norwegian army, who were well ahead of the other competitors in the Olympic decathlon. So few points separated them that a recount would be necessary but it appears the Norwegian has a slight advantage in the contest which consisted of ten events. Which ever of the two is awarded the cup donated by the late Russian Emperor for the decathlon and which Jim Thorpe had to forfeit at Stockholm to Weislander of Sweden in 1912 because of a charge of professionalism, there is so little that both Hamilton and Loveland may be justly proud of their laurels.

Altho Loveland failed to score a single first, he made equally good time with several others in the dashes and his performances in the high jump, pole vault, the 1500 meters and the shot put and discus were so consistent that he obtained second, third or fourth. He thus apparently outpointed Hamilton, who won first in the shot put and the 100 meters and did well in the broad jump, the javelin and discus, but got only seventh in the 1,500 meters and eleventh in the high jump.

At the finish of the 1,500 meters, the tenth event in the two days, Hamilton fairly staggered into the arms of friends and was assisted off the field.

It was the same story with the other ten competitors who survived the preliminaries.

The other Americans made an excellent showing in the other events. Six places for a total of 21 points out of a possible 18 in the three finals today. These consisted of first and second in 56 pound weight, third and fifth in the 3,000 meter walk and fifth and sixth in the hop-step-and-jump. American four-man teams qualified for the two relay races while K. C. Bartlett, University of Oregon, and A. R. Pope, University of Washington, qualified for the final of he discus with the third and fourth best throws.

Aside from Hamilton's exhibition the best performances were those of "Babe" McDonald, the biggest man on the team, if not on the entire entry list with the 56 pound weight and the gray-haired walker, Remer, who stack with the fastest kind of walkers, the Italian Frigerio and the Australian Parker, capturing third place in the 3,000 metres.

As a result of today's wins, America's points now total 179, which is more than twice the total of any of the three nearest competitor nations, who are closely bunched as follows:

|---|---|
| England | 67 |
| Finland | 65 |
| Sweden | 63 |

JOCK HUTCHINSON WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—Jock Hutchinson of Chicago, won the Professional Golfers' Association Tournament by defeating J. Douglas Edgar of Atlanta, Ga., one up in the final 36 holes of play today on the Flossmoor course.

Hutchinson won by halving the final hole after Edgar, who had played a great uphill game on the second round of the day, drove into a trap and then, after a good recovery, missed a long putt by an inch.

Hutchinson played an unusually good game, considering that most of the match took place in a rain and led Edgar one up at the half way mark. At the turn in the second round he had increased his lead to three up, but the Atlantan barely missed catching him home green. Victory gave Hutchinson $500 and a diamond medal and brought the Wannamaker trophy to the Glenview Country Club for one year.

St. Louis Stars Leading Hitters In Both Leagues

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—Players in the National League who last week were leaders in their specialties continued to set the pace, according to averages released today, which include games of Wednesday.

Roger Hornsby, the St. Louis star, who topped the list of batters participating in 50 or more games a week ago with an average of .372 retained the same mark altho he played in eight games during the week. However he increased his lead in total bases to .245 or 162 hits which include 32 doubles fifteen triples and seven homers. Eayrs of Boston altho dropping three points, continued to be the runnerup with .353, while Nicholson of Pittsburgh stepped in front of Roush of Cincinnati for third place, with a mark of .341. The Cincinnati outfielder slumped five points for an average of .327 which ties him with J. Smith of St. Louis for fourth place.

Cy Williams, the Philadelphia outfielder, failed to swell his home run total of 13. Max Carey of Pittsburgh negotiated a quartette of stolen bases and is showing the way with 42.

George Sisler, St. Louis' star first baseman, has been having a great time with the willow during the past week, and as a result has dethroned Tris Speaker, manager of the Cleveland Indians in the American League for the leadership among the players who have participated in 50 or more games. Sisler is batting .408, an increase of four points over last week, while Speaker has dropped 17 points to .400. Joe Jackson, the Chicago slugger, and Babe Ruth, the home run king, each suffered a slump in their hitting, but are sticking among the leaders, being tied for third place. Each is batting .380.

Ruth made only one home run from Wednesday a week ago to last Wednesday, when the averages were compiled. He had up to this time gathered 42 circuit drives. His total base record has been increased to 303 bases, and as a run getter he has counted 127 times. Rice, of Washington, continued to set the pace among the base stealers with a total of 45 thefts, two of them which were added during the week.

Ty Cobb, Detroit's star, who showed signs of climbing among the leading batters, has not kept up the pace he set a couple of weeks ago. He is hitting .312 compared with .341 a week ago.

"Bubbles" Hargrave of St. Paul, has been having a field day among the American Association players the past week. Hitting .323 and in eighth place among the players who had participated in 50 or more games, Hargrave went on a batting rampage which boosted his average to .337, putting hime in tie with Wickland, of Toledo, for second place. The pair pushed Grover Hartley of Columbus, who is topping the lis, with a mark of .351.

Hargrave not only went into second place in batting, but he is only one run behind Dressen, of St. Paul, in the number of runs scored, and has taken the lead from Good of Kansas City for total base honors. His 131 hits gave him a total of 227 bases which include 26 doubles, eleven triples and 16 homers. This latter specialty has placed him in a tie with Bunny Brief of Kansas City for circuit drive honors.

Other leading batters: Wade, Minneapolis, .335; Rondeau, Minneapolis, .333; Dubuc, Toledo, .333; Good, Kansas City, .322; Rehg, Indianapolis, .321; Rapp, St. Paul, .321; Hyatt, Toledo, .320; Sweeney, Kansas City, .317; Lamar, Louisville, 316.

Only slight changes were made among the leading batters of the Southern Association during the past week. H. Allen, of New Orleans, made the best showing with the willow and advanced from fifteenth place, among those who have played 50 or more games, to ninth place. The other leaders who are topped by Harper, of Little Rock, with an average of .352 remained practically in the same positions held last week.

Harper continues to lead in total bases with 243; Carroll of Memphis, leads in runs scored with 87 and in stolen bases with 41, while E. Miller, of Little Rock, retained his lead in home runs with 16.

Western League batters who made up the first ten last week continued to set the pace for the others in the league who have played in 50 or more games. One or two changed positions but the margins are slight. East of Wichita, continues at the head of the list with .336. Bogart, Joplin, is the runner-up with .353 and Yaryan, Wichita, is third with .349. In addition Yaryan continued his lead in total bases with 255. He failed to increase his string of home runs during the week, and they remain at 20. Pitt of Oklahoma City retained his lead as a run getter, having scored 87 times. Lee of New Orleans with his 20 stolen bases continued to show the way to the base stealers.

Other leading batters: Pitt, Oklahoma City, .322; Shestak, St. Joseph, .330; Crouch, Sioux City, .328; Beck, Wichita, .326; Lindimore, Oklahoma City, .323; Lelivelt, Omaha, 320; Platte, Omaha, .319.

CARL MAYS WILL BE BACK IN GAME SOON

Made His First Appearance On the Field Saturday Since the Accident Which Resulted in Ray Chapman's Death — Ty Cobb Hissed by New York Fans.

New York, Aug. 21. — Carl Mays, pitcher of the New York American league club, will probably be in the game against Detroit tomorrow. Mays today made his first appearance on the field since the accident which resulted in the death of Ray Chapman. The Yankee pitcher warmed up today, but after the game with Detroit started, he went to the club house. The fact that Mays indulged in practice was taken as an indication that Manager Huggins intends to work him in his regular turn and it was said that if Mays had sufficiently recovered from the shock of the accident, he would pitch tomorrow.

Ty Cobb, of the Detroit team, who was quoted in Boston as saying some drastic action should be taken against Mays because of the Chapman accident, was today made a target for abuse by the New York fans. When Cobb first appeared for preliminary practice he was met with a storm of hisses and booes and these were repeated each time he went to bat.

Call Special Meeting

Boston, Aug. 21. — A special meeting of the American league club owners has been called for next Tuesday at Philadelphia, President H. H. Frazee of the Boston club said today.

President Johnson of the league in issuing the call gave no reason for the meeting but Mr. Frazee said he thought the death of Chapman and the league's attitude toward Pitcher Mays, who threw the ball which killed him, would be considered.

President Jonnson is understood to have obtained a statement on the accident from Manager Speaker of the Cleveland club, who was reported so much affected by the player's death that he was unable to accompany his team here today.

THAYER WILL COME FOR BATTLE TODAY

Visitors Have Strong Lineup With Padgett on the Rubber—Earl Clark Will Catch for Indees.

Weather conditions perimtting there will be a warm game at South Side park this afternoon when Thayer and the Indees hook up in battle.

The visitors come with a good reputation and have some well known players in their lineup. Among them are Padgett, who pitched for the Indees last season and a part of this season and Mahan who played here last year. Windy Richardson the well known Virden catcher will also be in the Thayer lineup.

Catcher Grady asked Manager Smith to permit him to play with Myers Brothers the remainder of the season. They are going to have a city series over there and Grady wanted to get in on the money for which no one blames him.

Smith was fortunate in getting Earl Clark of Mt. Sterling to catch for the Indees. Clark has been seen here with Bluffs and is a first class receiver. He is also a good sticker and the Indees will be fully as strong as before.

While it is not known who will work for the Indees it probably will be Patrick, tho Wright may draw the assignment. If Pat is right he will beat Thayer or any other team. The teams will line up as follows:

SPEEDIEST WATERCRAFT IS ENTERED IN REGETTA

The Gold Cup Event Is a 90-Mile Affair Run in Three 30-Mile Heats—Miss America Has Speed of 80 Miles Per Hour.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 21.—Six of the speediest watercraft in the world are entered for the gold cup race, feature event of the regatta of the Amercian Powerboat association to be held in the Detroit river Sept. 11 to 15. Among them is Miss America, with which Garfield Wood lifted the Harmsworth trophy off Cowes, England. Miss Detroit V., another contender in the Harmsworth races, also is entered.

The Gold Cup event is a 90-mile affair to be run in three 30-mile heats over a circular course of five miles. Other events to be run during the regatta include the Carl Fisher $5,000 Gold Trophy race, the Detroit News trophy, the Sallan cup race and a free for all for which Garfield Wood has offered $5,000 in cash.

Besides the two hydroplanes that Wood took over seas, there will be entered in the Gold Cup event according to present plans, the Miss Toronto of the Toronto Motor Boat association Miss New Orleans of New Orleans Yacht club, Miss Detroit III of the Detroit Yacht club, and Miss Belle Isle of theDetroit Boat club.

The point system of scoring will be used in determining the winner of the Gold Cup race. Under this system, a contestant receives one point for starting, a point for finishing and a point for each boat it bests in the race.

Wood will drive Miss America. It is declared that in a trial over a mile course shortly after her completion at Algonac, Mich., Miss America attained a speed of 80 miles an hour. She is equipped with two six-cylinder engines each developing 450 horsepower. Motor boat enthusiasts are predicting that a new world's record will be established in the gold cup event. The speed record for the race was made by Miss Detroit I., at Minneapolis several years ago, when "Gar" Wood piloted her at the rate of 56.5 miles an hour in one lap. In winning the race that contest, Wood averaged 54.14 miles an hour for the 90 miles.

The Carl Fisher race will be run in three heats of 50 miles each. It is open to displacement craft of 32 feet or longer and the contestants must each carry four passengers, Edsel Ford has entered his cruiser in this race and will drive it personally, according to announcement.

The Detroit News trophy will be run in one heat of ten miles and is a free for all cruiser event.

The Sallan cup event is for cabin cruisers with a speed of not more than 14 miles an hour. It will be run in three heats of 22 1-2 miles each.

EDWARDSVILLE LEADS IN FIREMEN'S TOURNAMENT

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 21—Final championship contests of the Illinois Firemen's Tournament at the Illinois State Fair were again postponed this afternoon because of wet grounds. The Edwardsville department is leading in the tournament, having won both the hook and ladder and hose contests. Peru added another victory in winning the novelty hose coupling championship. Concluding events will be run tomorrow.

WILL RUN OLYMPIC MARATHON RACE TODAY

Course Measures Nearly 27 Miles, There Being a Dirt or Cinder Path Most of the Way—Route Will Be Kept Free of Traffic During Race.

Antwerp, Aug. 21.—(By The Associated Press). — The chief marathon race — the Olympic classic—will be run tomorrow on a course that measures exactly 42.75 kilometers (nearly 27 miles). There are dire or cinder paths most of the way. Both the start and the finish will be at the stadium. The road leads thru several small villages. The runners will follow main Belgian highways for most of the distance.

Like nearly all Belgian roads, these highways are payed in the center with brick, and on each side with dirt or cinders which will make easy footing for the runners. Each nation is permitted four competitors but some of them will have only one or two runners.

The route is to be kept free from traffic during the race by Belgian soldiers. Officials at several points will check the progress of the runners. Among the nations entering are the United States, England, South Africa, Holland, Canada, Italy, Chile, Czecho Slovakia, Denmark, Finland, Sweden, India, Belgium, France, Japan, Australia, Greece and Esthonia.

In the first m[illegible] Olympiad the race was w[illegible]y Loues, a Greek, at Athens.

The second, at Paris, was won by Tetoe, a Frenchman. The third at St. Louis, by Hicks, an American; the fourth at London by Johnny Hayes of America, and the fifth at Stockholm by the South African, McArthur.

SAN ANTONIO CATCHER GOES TO BOSTON

San Antonio, Texas, Aug. 21.—Catcher Gibson, of the San Antonio, Texas, league club has been sold to the Boston Nationals it has been announced.

U. S. Has Large Lead Over Its Competitors

ANTWERP, Aug. 21. — (By The Associted Press).—The title of the world's best all around athlete lies tonight between Brutus K. Hamilton of the University of Missouri, and Captain Helge Loveland of the Norwegian army, who were well ahead of the other competitors in the Olympic decathlon. So few points separated them that a recount would be necessary but it appears the Norwegian has a slight advantage in the contest which consisted of ten events. Which ever of the two is awarded the cup donated by the late Russian Emperor for the decathlon and which Jim Thorpe had to forfeit at Stockholm to Weislander of Sweden in 1912 because of a charge of professionalism, there is so little that both Hamilton and Loveland may be justly proud of their laurels.

Altho Loveland failed to score a single first, he made equally good time with several others in the dashes and his performances in the high jump, pole vault, the 1500 meters and the shot put and discus were so consistent that he obtained second, third or fourth. He thus apparently outpointed Hamilton, who won first in the shot put and the 100 meters and did well in the broad jump, the javelin and discus, but got only seventh in the 1,500 meters and eleventh in the high jump.

At the finish of the 1,500 meters, the tenth event in the two days, Hamilton fairly staggered into the arms of friends and was assisted off the field.

It was the same story with the other ten competitors who survived the preliminaries.

The other Americans made an excellent showing in the other events. Six places for a total of 21 points out of a possible 18 in the three finals today. These consisted of first and second in 56 pound weight, third and fifth in the 3,000 meter walk and fifth and sixth in the hop-step-and-jump. American four-man teams qualified for the two relay races while K. C. Bartlett, University of Oregon, and A. R. Pope, University of Washington, qualified for the final of he discus with the third and fourth best throws.

Aside from Hamilton's exhibition the best performances were those of "Babe" McDonald, the biggest man on the team, if not on the entire entry list with the 56 pound weight and the gray-haired walker, Remer, who stuck with the fastest kind of walkers, the Italian Frigerio and the Australian Parker, capturing third place in the 3,000 metres.

As a result of today's wins, America's points now total 179, which is more than twice the total of any of the three nearest competitor nations, who are closely bunched as follows:

|---|---|
| England | 67 |
| Finland | 65 |
| Sweden | 63 |

JOCK HUTCHINSON WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—Jock Hutchinson of Chicago, won the Professional Golfers' Association Tournament by defeating J. Douglas Edgar of Atlanta, Ga., one up in the final 36 holes of play today on the Flossmoor course.

Hutchinson won by halving the final hole after Edgar, who had played a great uphill game on the second round of the day, drove into a trap and then, after a good recovery, missed a long putt by an inch.

Hutchinson played an unusually good game, considering that most of the match took place in a rain and led Edgar one up at the half way mark. At the turn in the second round he had increased his lead to three up, but the Atlantan barely missed catching him home green. Victory gave Hutchinson $500 and a diamond medal and brought the Wannamaker trophy to the Glenview Country Club for one year.

"WILL PRAISE IT LONG AS I LIVE" SHE SAYS

This is What Mrs. Sarah Brunner Says After Tanlac Freed Her of Thirty Years Trouble—Is Like a Different Woman Now

"I owe my present good health to Tanlac and I shall praise it as long as I live," said Mrs. Sarah Brunner, of 364 North Seminary street, Galesburg, Ill.

"I suffered from stomach trouble and rheumatism for thirty years and at times thought I would surely die. Even the lightest kind of food like oatmeal or soft boiled eggs would cause a burning in my stomach and I would bloat up with gas until I could hardly breathe and my heart would palpitate something awful. Rheumatism settled in my joints and hurt me so bad that I could hardly get around the house to do my work. I had awful pains across the small of my back and became so nervous that some nights I never slept a wink and the next day would suffer with a splitting headache. I had tried so many medicines without getting any relief that I became despondent and discouraged.

"I bought a bottle of Tanlac and from then on I began to get well. I soon had a good appetite and could eat anything I wanted without any fear of indigestion afterwards. I began to sleep well at night and get stronger, and the terrible headaches left me. I continued with the medicine and today the rheumatism has entirely disappeared and I am like a different woman."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover & Shreve and by the leading drug store in every town. —Adv.

BELIEVE PEACE PROGRAM WILL STAND

WARSAW, Aug. 21.—(By The Associated Press.)—It is not believed here that the recent Polish-Russian military successes will materially change the program of the Polish delegation at present treating with the Bolsheviki in Minsk. The newspapers express the belief that the basis of peace remains as follows:

First:—Poland will claim only the territories inhabited by a majority Polish and Catholic population. The soviet government does not contest this point.

Second:—Poland will claim for the peoples once forming a part of ancient Poland the right freely to determine their lot.

Third:—The declaration of the soviet government on these points, which often has been repeated but never realized, must be guaranteed by acts.

RIFLE MATCH CLOSES

Camp Perry, O., Augfi 21.—The all around championship match, which wound up the National Rifle Association matches, was finished in the rain tonight, and winners may not be known before tomorrow.

STATE FAIR WILL HAVE RACES TODAY

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 21.—For the first time in fifty six years, the Illinois state fair tomorrow will have a race program on Sunday. Wet tracks today forced a postponement and on agreement of race drivers and the fair management, the schedule was announced for tomorrow. There will be eight automobile races, auto polo, and contests between Ruth Law, the aviatrix and Fred Horey, dirt track driver. Opera music will also furnish the usual Sunday feature.

MEXICO ESTABLISHING FARM COLONIES

Mexico City. — To satisfy the land-hunger of the Mexican peasantry, the government is establishing farm colonies in the states of San Luis Potisi and Guanajuato. Other settlements will be founded as soon as these first two are completely launched.

In these colonies, the small proprietoris will live like the Mormons in Chihuahua and Sonora—each community having its own streets, market, garden, mixed school and moving picture theatre. Apportionment of the adjacent farm lands will be made so that each petty landholder will literally have his own "row to hoe," thus obviating one of the greatest causes for the many recent uprisings that have occurred in Mexico. Each farmer will be furnished with agricultural implements and seed.

These farms will be non-transferable in any form whether by mortgage sale or exchange. They may be inherited, however, and are to be free from taxation.

It is planned to establish the proposed communities near railroad lines, so that the products will find ready markets.

UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI MEN NOW AT ANTWERP

Columbia, Mo, — Three University of Missouri athletes have been selected to represent the American team at the Olympic games.

Missouri's trio consists of Jackson V. Scholtz, Brutus Hamilton and George Massengale. The latter's name was placed on the revised list in the finals of the 220 yard dash in the tryouts.

Scholz, a St. Louisan, is an outstanding star of the middle west in the 100 yard dash. He has run the century several times in 9 4-5 seconds, only one-fifth of a second less than the world's record. Scholz has just completed his last year on the Missouri track.

Hamilton is looked upon here as the best all-round track and field athlete in the United States, because of his unexpected victories in both the panthalon and decathlon in the Olympic tryouts. He has just finished his second year at the university and his first year as a member of the track team. His home is in Harrisonville, Mo.

Chicago, Aug. 20.—Illinois has in the Newberry library of Chicago one of the foremost geneological collections in the country, which is much used by persons looking up their ancestral tree, according to George B. Utley, newly appointed librarian there. The Newberry library has certainly the third and perhaps the second best collection in America. He said:

"By an exhaustive index of its resources inquirers are enabled with the help of the library's competent assistants to ascertain quickly what information is available regarding any particular family," reports Mr. Utley. "In these days when so many are investigating their eligibility for membership n the Daughters and Sons of the Amercan Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, or some other patriotic organization the genelogical department is used by thousands of people, not only from Chicago but from all parts of the country."

UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI MEN NOW AT ANTWERP

Columbia, Mo, — Three University of Missouri athletes have been selected to represent the American team at the Olympic games.

Missouri's trio consists of Jackson V. Scholtz, Brutus Hamilton and George Massengale. The latter's name was placed on the revised list in the finals of the 220 yard dash in the tryouts.

Scholz, a St. Louisan, is an outstanding star of the middle west in the 100 yard dash. He has run the century several times in 9 4-5 seconds, only one-fifth of a second less than the world's record. Scholz has just completed his last year on the Missouri track.

Hamilton is looked upon here as the best all-round track and field athlete in the United States, because of his unexpected victories in both the panthalon and decathlon in the Olympic tryouts. He has just finished his second year at the university and his first year as a member of the track team. His home is in Harrisonville, Mo.

By keeping your children's shoes in repair you save money two ways—on shoe bills and doctor's bills. Even from an economic standpoint it to is your interest to send their shoes to us for renewing.

WAR TROPHIES NOW BEING DISTRIBUTED

Big Bertha Goes to Mt. Kisco, N. York., and Will Be Placed In a Prominent Position—Army and Navy Club of Amecira Gets Large Collection.

NEW YORK, — Thousands of war trophies brought from the battle fields of France for use during the Liberty Loan and other drives are being distributed at the warehouse of the French mission here. The material includes guns of all kinds used by the French, British and Germans, calary swords, cuirasses, shells and soldier equipment.

Large demands for trophies have come from inland cities, according to Major Jean Mayle, director of the Bureau of Information, Direction Generale Des Services Francais Aux Etats Unis, now in this city.

One of the largest single collections, with the exception of that given to Washington for the National Museum, was presented to the Army and Navy club of America. The trophies will be preserved in a suitable environment to be included in the plans for the new $3,000,000 club house that is to be erected in honor of the officers killed in the war.

The collection of 50 pieces is made up of cannon, flame throwers, trench mortars, machine guns, bayonets, rifles, swords, cuirasses, wire cutting machines, tenrch stoves, brasiers, marmites, shells and shell baskets, marine signal flags and other interesting and valuable trophies. The selection was made by Captain Adrian Duane Doty, U. S. Signal Corps, repreesnting the club.

Tanks and German field pieces weighing from one ton to ten recently have been given to cities like Chicago, St. Louis, Chattanooga and others as far away as Texas.

A huge German listening post has been given to Bloomfield, N. J., Montclair received a whippet tank, while the National Museum at Washington was awarded a large 16-man tank. Other valuable pieecs were sent to Washington including an airplane, sample pieces of all the foreign artillery used during the war, uniforms and field kitchens.

The prize of the collection, a Big Bertha, was claimed by Mt. Kisco, N. Y., and will be placed in a prominent position there. The State University of Baton Rouge, La., has requested the immediate shipment of a German minnenwerfer. Chattanooga has been given a German 150 millimeter gun weighing three tons.

The Chicago collection was chosen by Colonel E. M. Marr. It will be shipped to that city within the next few days, Sergeant Fred Aneth, French Army, who has been in charge of the material for two years announced. An idea of the demands made for trophies, he said, could be gained from the fact that more than 3,000 French helmets and an equal number of uniforms had been disposed of.

To various posts of the American Legion field pieces have been given. All requests are filed at the office of the director generale, 65 Broadway, before permission is given to inspect and select the trophies.

BOYS FIRED RIFLE FROM FREIGHT TRAIN

Harry Fox and Henry Jump, both of Beardstown, were brought to the city Friday by Deputy Sheriff Wood of Franklin, charged with firing a rifle from a freight train. The shot which led to the arrest of the two was fired from a Chicago, Burlington and Quincy train and crashed thru the window of the tower house near the local right of way. Word was sent to Franklin that two boys were aboard the train firing shots at random and when the train reached Franklin the officer was in waiting.

The mother of the Fox boy came to the city Saturday and took charge of the boy, who is about twelve years of age. The other lad is held at the local jail. The elder lad denied having a rifle but the other declared they had a rifle but had thrown it down near the tracks.

The morals of Tia Juana in Lower California are to be regulated, according to the statement of the Mexican embassy. The most difficult part of carrying out the order is to locate the morals of Tia Juana, the city of horse racing, gambling and general all-round badness.

We note with interest that Thompson and other of his campaign orators are giving Lowden credit for the Utility commission. If these individuals will investigate a little they will find that the Utility law was passed during the administration of Governor Dunne and the first commission was named by him.

Generally speaking citizens of a city would not object to the utility commission granting utility companies permission to increase rates if the company was delivering the goods. However, in most instances the company is not doing this.

General Pilsudski is in charge of the Polish forces at Warsaw. His name recalls the good old days when there was considerable moisture in this country.

A Chicago man who died recently left a liquor stock in his cellar valued at $20,000. Federal authorities have ruled it can neither be sold or moved. It looks as tho the executors of the estate will have to drink all the liquor.

Local politicians are hoping that Governor Cox is right about that $15,000,000 campaign fund and they also are praying that some of it will find its way to Morgan county.

It's a wonder some of the local gun toters did not get out an injunction to prevent Chief Kiloran from accepting that revolver. We don't see what a policeman wants to carry a gun for, anyway.

Sugar dealers are crying for help from the government to save them from the present slump in sugar. We never heard them shouting for help when they were charging 28 to 35 cents per pound for sugar that they bought for eight or nine cents per pound.

The Killing Air of the Desert

Across the hot sands blow the parched dry winds—sucking every drop of moisture from plant and animal. It fans the man's face and body—drying up his skin, his lips—his very life.

Compare the Air in Your Home

The average home has less than one degree of humidity—while the Sahara Desert averages six degrees

Your stove burns up the moisture and the oxygen in the air. This dry air in turn sucks the moisture from the bodies of you and your family—reducing your vitality—impairing your health—even endangering your lives.

Moisen the Air as You Warm It

Banish your unhealthful, dirt-producing stoves. In stall, instead, the one heater that, in addition to warming every nook and corner of your home, fills the air with life-giving moisture (humidity). These in the basement—out of the way—with but one register, heat every room in the house—whether there be two or twelve—to a temperature of 70 degrees in even the coldest weather. One fire does this—where three or four stoves fail.

But in addition, the Air Washer-Humidifier System washes and moistens the air as it is warmed.

The Hero Pipeless Furnace excels all others in this one big vital feature; for these vapor pans cover the entire bottom of the air chamber and all air must pass over them.

Thus the dirt, dust, lint, fibers, odors and gases are washed out and the proper amount of moisture is added to the clean pure air.

No Deadly Air in a Hero Heated Home

Those who have Hero—moistened Heat know from experience that they save fuel—for a temperatur of 65 degrees with the proper moisture is more comfortable than 72 degrees when the air is dry.

Let us demonstrate to you the other advantages of the Hero Pipeless Furnace.

WAR TROPHIES NOW BEING DISTRIBUTED

Big Bertha Goes to Mt. Kisco, N. York., and Will Be Placed In a Prominent Position—Army and Navy Club of Amecira Gets Large Collection.

NEW YORK, — Thousands of war trophies brought from the battle fields of France for use during the Liberty Loan and other drives are being distributed at the warehouse of the French mission here. The material includes guns of all kinds used by the French, British and Germans, calalry swords, cuirasses, shells and soldier equipment.

Large demands for trophies have come from inland cities, according to Major Jean Mayle, director of the Bureau of Information, Direction Generale Des Services Francais Aux Etats Unis, now in this city.

One of the largest single collections, with the exception of that given to Washington for the National Museum, was presented to the Army and Navy club of America. The trophies will be preserved in a suitable environment to be included in the plans for the new $3,000,000 club house that is to be erected in honor of the officers killed in the war.

The collection of 50 pieces is made up of cannon, flame throwers, trench mortars, machine guns, bayonets, rifles, swords, cuirasses, wire cutting machines, tenrch stoves, brasiers, marmites, shells and shell baskets, marine signal flags and other interesting and valuable trophies. The selection was made by Captain Adrian Duane Doty, U. S. Signal Corps, repreesnting the club.

Tanks and German field pieces weighing from one ton to ten recently have been given to cities like Chicago, St. Louis, Chattanooga and others as far away as Texas.

A huge German listening post has been given to Bloomfield, N. J., Montclair received a whippet tank, while the National Museum at Washington was awarded a large 16-man tank. Other valuable pieecs were sent to Washington including an airplane, sample pieces of all the foreign artillery used during the war, uniforms and field kitchens.

The prize of the collection, a Big Bertha, was claimed by Mt. Kisco, N. Y., and will be placed in a prominent position there. The State University of Baton Rouge, La., has requested the immediate shipment of a German minnen werfer. Chattanooga has been given a German 150 millimeter gun weighing three tons.

The Chicago collection was chosen by Colonel E. M. Marr. It will be shipped to that city within the next few days, Sergeant Fred Aneth, French Army, who has been in charge of the material for two years announced. An idea of the demands made for trophies, he said, could be gained from the fact that more than 3,000 French helmets and an equal number of uniforms had been disposed of.

To various posts of the American Legion field pieces have been given. All requests are filed at the office of the director generale, 65 Broadway, before permission is given to inspect and select the trophies.

BOYS FIRED RIFLE FROM FREIGHT TRAIN

Harry Fox and Henry Jump, both of Beardstown, were brought to the city Friday by Deputy Sheriff Wood of Franklin, charged with firing a rifle from a freight train. The shot which led to the arrest of the two was fired from a Chicago, Burlington and Quincy train and crashed thru the window of the tower house near the local right of way. Word was sent to Franklin that two boys were aboard the train firing shots at random and when the train reached Franklin the officer was in waiting.

The mother of the Fox boy came to the city Saturday and took charge of the boy, who is about twelve years of age. The other lad is held at the local jail. The elder lad denied having a rifle but the other declared they had a rifle but had thrown it down near the tracks.

Candidate Harding and Candidate Cox have not said a word about getting the price of news print reduced.

The morals of Tia Juana in Lower California are to be regulated, according to the statement of the Mexican embassy. The most difficult part of carrying out the order is to locate the morals of Tia Juana, the city of horse racing, gambling and general all-round badness.

We note with interest that Thompson and other of his campaign orators are giving Lowden credit for the Utility commission. If these individuals will investigate a little they will find that the Utility law was passed during the administration of Governor Dunne and the first commission was named by him.

Generally speaking citizens of a city would not object to the utility commission granting utility companies permission to increase rates if the company was delivering the goods. However, in most instances the company is not doing this.

General Pilsudski is in charge of the Polish forces at Warsaw. His name recalls the good old days when there was considerable moisture in this country.

A Chicago man who died recently left a liquor stock in his cellar valued at $20,000. Federal authorities have ruled it can neither be sold or moved. It looks as tho the executors of the estate will have to drink all the liquor.

Local politicians are hoping that Governor Cox is right about that $15,000,000 campaign fund and they also are praying that some of it will find its way to Morgan county.

It's a wonder some of the local gun toters did not get out an injunction to prevent Chief Kiloran from accepting that revolver. We don't see what a policeman wants to carry a gun for, anyway.

Harold Ickes says he expects to remain affiliated with the Republican party but will vote for Cox. That is going to be tough on the party.

Skirts are going to be two inches shorter and somewhat tighter this year. In spite of the reduced amount of cloth the price is going to be so high a man will need field glasses to see it.

Sugar dealers are crying for help from the government to save them from the present slump in sugar. We never heard them shouting for help when they were charging 28 to 35 cents per pound for sugar that they bought for eight or nine cents per pound.

If this keeps on the consumer may get it some place besides in the neck.

The Killing Air of the Desert

Across the hot sands blow the parched dry winds—sucking every drop of moisture from plant and animal. It fans the man's face and body—drying up his skin, his lips—his very life.

Compare the Air in Your Home

The average home has less than one degree of humidity—while the Sahara Desert averages six degrees

Your stove burns up the moisture and the oxygen in the air. This dry air in turn sucks the moisture from the bodies of you and your family—reducing your vitality—impairing your health—even endangering your lives.

Moisen the Air as You Warm It

Banish your unhealthful, dirt-producing stoves. Install, instead, the one heater that, in addition to warming every nook and corner of your home, fills the air with life-giving moisture (humidity). These in the basement—out of the way—with but one register, heat every room in the house—whether there be two or twelve—to a temperature of 70 degrees in even the coldest weather. One fire does this—where three or four stoves fail.

But in addition, the Air Washer-Humidifier System washes and moistens the air as it is warmed.

The Hero Pipeless Furnace excels all others in this one big vital feature; for these vapor pans cover the entire bottom of the air chamber and all air must pass over them.

Thus the dirt, dust, lint, fibers, odors and gases are washed out and the proper amount of moisture is added to the clean pure air.

No Deadly Air in a Hero Heated Home

Those who have Hero—moistened Heat know from experience that they save fuel—for a temperature of 65 degrees with the proper moisture is more comfortable than 72 degrees when the air is dry.

Let us demonstrate to you the other advantages of the Hero Pipeless Furnace.

When the Worker Loses

The spirit of efficiency permeates the business life of today to such an extent that the very pulse of commerce has experienced a quickening that is noticeable. Yet much of the benefit of efficient business methods is lost through the worker's inefficiency due to physical inefficiency.

A sick worker is a poor workman. He is a loss to himself in wages and a loss to his employer in production. Much sickness is caused not by work or physical unfitness, but rather through the waste of energy caused by faulty nerve action, which so weakens the system that the body becomes an easy victim of ailments and disease.

Big, successful, healthy business men know that to succeed to keep up with the strain and demands of the times, they must be fit. They must conserve every ounce of their energy and power. Many of them have found that they can best do this through because it corrects the cause of faulty nerve action and permits Nature to bring about the normal distribution of energy. Health and vigor usually follow. Chiropractic (Ki-Ro-Prak-Tic) is drugless. Every one should investigate Chiropractic, because of the greater material benefit to be derived through it.

CHIROPRACTIC

OPERATORS WILL SUPPLY STATE COAL

Fuel for Various Institutions to be Furnished at the Market Prices.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 20.—Responding to the appeal of twenty-five state institutions, which have competely exhausted their coal reserve, and have a supply barely sufficient to keep the ntcessary fires burning from day to day, Illinois coal operators have pledged themselves to the relief of the institutions. They offer to supply them with coal thruout the winter at the prevailing market prices.

This action of the coal operators was reported buperintendent Henry H. Kohn of the State Division of Purchases and Supplies. The operators, Mr. Kohn said, plan to apportion the 25 institutions among themselves. Certain mines will supply certain institutions.

Ths arrangement. Mr. Kohn said, came just in time to prevent wholesale confiscation of coal. The situation among state institutions, charitable, educational and penal was serious. All but four of the institutions had reduced their 60-day reserve to nothing and only the four have contracts for a further supply. These are at Kankakee Pontiac, Chester and Lincoln.

Opeators, Mr. Kohn said, attracted by the more profitable industrial trade, ignored state bids or else made excessive bids. While agreeing to Mr. Kohn's explanation in part, local operators blame the British thermal unit system of penalties for the state's lack of coal contracts. Coal sold to the state was tested by this system and if it fell below a certain standard in heat production, the operator who sold the coal suffered.

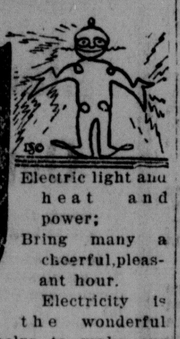

One year, the operators said, the state records listed $49,000 as saved by the imposition of these penalties. Latest requests for bids specify that the B. T. U. British thermal system will not be imposed.

LITERBERRY SCHOOL TO OPEN SEPT. 1

Prof. Jennings and Miss Margaret Chapman to be Teachers the Coming Term—Other Literberry Notes.

Literberry, Aug. 20. — Literberry College will open about the first of September with Prof. Jennings and Miss Margaret Chapman, teachers. There are ten little six year old people to go their "very first day" at school at the opening of this term and we wish them success as new scholars.

Word has been received from Mrs. Mary Rudisil, who is visiting at Arkansas City, Kansas. She and the friends who are with her are pleased with Kansas, and say it is much like Illinois, in many respects. Mrs. John Guy and daughter Eleanor, of Seven Gables are taking a vacation and will spend a week at Racine, Wis., visiting Delbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy.

Mrs. Scribner and children expect to go to Beardstown Friday to visit Mrs. Little.

Obituary

George B. Liter son of George and Mary Bryant Liter, was born in Kentucky, April 16, 1841, came to Literberry in an early day. Mr. Liter was a member of Co. E, 101 Reg. Inf. during the Civil war, doing his duty as a man should and receiving his honorable discharge as a good soldier should.

Mr. Liter professed faith in Christ, was baptized and joined the Baptist church many years ago, and remained in that faith until his death. He married Miss Eliza Ann Stevenson, September, 1866, who departed this life June 16, 1913.

To this union there were two children, Mrs. Hattie Norman of Springfield and Mrs. W. W. Young of Literberry. There are seven grandchildren surviving, George, Ralph, Alfred and Lenore Norman of Springfield, Ill.; Landis, Eugene and Aileen Young, Literberry, Ill. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters, Jesse T., James M., of Literberry; Leonard of Little Indian; Mrs. Sarah Stevenson, Mrs. Eliza Ratliff, Literberry, and Mrs. E. L. Coons of St. Louis, Mo.

Mr. Liter was a man of peace, well liked and respected by all who knew him. After the death of his wife he continued living at his home, in Literberry but taking his meals with his daughter, Mrs. W. W. Young. Mr. Liter took much pride and comfort in his grandchildren. In his last sickness everything was done that could be of any benefit or comfort to the loved one.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist church, Thursday at 2 o'clock p. m., Rev. W. R. Johnson officiating. The singing was contributed by Mrs. W. H. Crum and daughter Wilma, Mrs. Durrell Crum presiding at the piano. Rev. Johnson preached an exceedingly fine and feeling sermon from the text, "But thanks be to God who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

The pall bearers were six young men who have all seen service in the world war, George Norman, John McFarland, Earl Meyers, Orville Petefish, Beryl Liter, Arthur Johnson. It was a touching sight to see those young soldiers paying the last tribute of respect to the old veterans. The beautiful flowers were cared for by Mrs. E. G. Young, Mrs. Arthur Liter and Mrs. J. M. Daniels. Interment was made in the Literberry cemetery.

Those from a distance were Mrs. Lizzie Coons, son and granddaughter, Sam and Helen Coons, from St. Louis; Mrs. Lizzie Campbell, Mrs. Oscar Meline and Mrs. Ed Stevenson of Jacksonville, and the Norman family from Springfield.

Card of Thanks

We are very thankful to our friends for their kindness and help in the care of our father during his sickness and death and for the many beautiful flowers.

Balfour Pink---the Granite Eternal

When you erect a monument you are erecting something to stand not for a year or two but for years and years—then you must get the best. Balfour Pink has stood this test.

"In the year 1766, near what are now the quarries of the Harris Granite Quarries Company, the home of BALFOUR PINK GRANITE, one Michael Braun built a granite house. Today the house stands intact, the pink granite retaining its true color, and we must marvel even more at the qualities of that granite which have enabled it to withstand the successive seasons of heat and frost without deterioration."

When the Worker Loses

The spirit of efficiency permeates the business life of today to such an extent that the very pulse of commerce has experienced a quickening that is noticeable. Yet much of the benefit of efficient business methods is lost through the worker's inefficiency due to physical inefficiency.

A sick worker is a poor workman. He is a loss to himself in wages and a loss to his employer in production. Much sickness is caused not by work or physical unfitness, but rather through the waste of energy caused by faulty nerve action, which so weakens the system that the body becomes an easy victim of ailments and disease.

Big, successful, healthy business men know that to succeed to keep up with the strain and demands of the times, they must be fit. They must conserve every ounce of their energy and power. Many of them have found that they can best do this through because it corrects the cause of faulty nerve action and permits Nature to bring about the normal distribution of energy. Health and vigor usually follow. Chiropractic (Ki-Ro-Prak-Tic) is drugless. Every one should investigate Chiropractic, because of the greater material benefit to be derived through it.

OPERATORS WILL SUPPLY STATE COAL

Fuel for Various Institutions to be Furnished at the Market Prices.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 20.—Responding to the appeal of twenty-five state institutions, which have competely exhausted their coal reserve, and have a supply barely sufficient to keep the ntcessary fires burning from day to day, Illinois coal operators have pledged themselves to the relief of the institutions. They offer to supply them with coal thruout the winter at the prevailing market prices.

This action of the coal operators was reported buperintendent Henry H. Kohn of the State Division of Purchases and Supplies. The operators, Mr. Kohn said, plan to apportion the 25 institutions among themselves. Certain mines will supply certain institutions.

Ths arrangement, Mr. Kohn said, came just in time to prevent wholesale confiscation of coal. The situation among state institutions, charitable, educational and penal was serious. All but four of the institutions had reduced their 60-day reserve to nothing and only the four have contracts for a further supply. These are at Kankakee Pontiac, Chester and Lincoln.

Opeators, Mr. Kohn said, attracted by the more profitable industrial trade, ignored state bids or else made excessive bids. While agreeing to Mr. Kohn's explanation in part, local operators blame the British thermal unit system of penalties for the state's lack of coal contracts. Coal sold to the state was tested by this system and if it fell below a certain standard in heat production, the operator who sold the coal suffered.

One year, the operators said, the state records listed $49,000 as saved by the imposition of these penalties. Latest requests for bids specify that the B. T. U. British thermal system will not be imposed.

LITERBERRY SCHOOL TO OPEN SEPT. 1

Prof. Jennings and Miss Margaret Chapman to be Teachers the Coming Term—Other Literberry Notes.

Literberry, Aug. 20. — Literberry College will open about the first of September with Prof. Jennings and Miss Margaret Chapman, teachers. There are ten little six year old people to go their "very first day" at school at the opening of this term and we wish them success as new scholars.

Word has been received from Mrs. Mary Rudisil, who is visiting at Arkansas City, Kansas. She and the friends who are with her are pleased with Kansas, and say it is much like Illinois, in many respects. Mrs. John Guy and daughter Eleanor, of Seven Gables are taking a vacation and will spend a week at Racine, Wis., visiting Delbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy.

Mrs. Scribner and children expect to go to Beardstown Friday to visit Mrs. Little.

Obituary

George B. Liter son of George and Mary Bryant Liter, was born in Kentucky, April 16, 1841, came to Literberry in an early day. Mr. Liter was a member of Co. E, 101 Reg. Inf. during the Civil war, doing his duty as a man should and receiving his honorable discharge as a good soldier should.

Mr. Liter professed faith in Christ, was baptized and joined the Baptist church many years ago, and remained in that faith until his death. He married Miss Eliza Ann Stevenson, September, 1866, who departed this life June 16, 1913.

To this union there were two children, Mrs. Hattie Norman of Springfield and Mrs. W. W. Young of Literberry. There are seven grandchildren surviving, George, Ralph, Alfred and Lenore Norman of Springfield, Ill.; Landis, Eugene and Aileen Young, Literberry, Ill. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters, Jesse T., James M., of Literberry; Leonard of Little Indian; Mrs. Sarah Stevenson, Mrs. Eliza Ratliff, Literberry, and Mrs. E. L. Coons of St. Louis, Mo.

Mr. Liter was a man of peace, well liked and respected by all who knew him. After the death of his wife he continued living at his home, in Literberry but taking his meals with his daughter, Mrs. W. W. Young. Mr. Liter took much pride and comfort in his grandchildren. In his last sickness everything was done that could be of any benefit or comfort to the loved one.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist church, Thursday at 2 o'clock p. m., Rev. W. R. Johnson officiating. The singing was contributed by Mrs. W. H. Crum and daughter Wilma, Mrs. Durrell Crum presiding at the piano. Rev. Johnson preached an exceedingly fine and feeling sermon from the text, "But thanks be to God who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

The pall bearers were six young men who have all seen service in the world war, George Norman, John McFarland, Earl Meyers, Orville Petefish, Beryl Liter, Arthur Johnson. It was a touching sight to see those young soldiers paying the last tribute of respect to the old veterans. The beautiful flowers were cared for by Mrs. E. G. Young, Mrs. Arthur Liter and Mrs. J. M. Daniels. Interment was made in the Literberry cemetery.

Those from a distance were Mrs. Lizzie Coons, son and granddaughter, Sam and Helen Coons, from St. Louis; Mrs. Lizzie Campbell, Mrs. Oscar Meline and Mrs. Ed Stevenson of Jacksonville, and the Norman family from Springfield.

Card of Thanks

We are very thankful to our friends for their kindness and help in the care of our father during his sickness and death and for the many beautiful flowers.

Balfour Pink---the Granite Eternal

When you erect a monument you are erecting something to stand not for a year or two but for years and years—then you must get the best. Balfour Pink has stood this test.

"In the year 1766, near what are now the quarries of the Harris Granite Quarries Company, the home of BALFOUR PINK GRANITE, one Michael Braun built a granite house. Today the house stands intact, the pink granite retaining its true color, and we must marvel even more at the qualities of that granite which have enabled it to withstand the successive seasons of heat and frost without deterioration."

RESUME OF BILLION DOLLAR RATE INCREASE

Railroads Place High Valuation on Properties—Shippers Want Roads Unified for Solving Probblem.

Washington, Aug. 21.—In presenting their original applications for freight rate increases the railroads contended before the Interstate Commerce Commission that $1,011,000,000 was necessary to advance their income to the six percent basis permitted by the new transportation act. Shippers and state commissions generally agreed that some advances were necessary, but they opposed both the total and the method of application.

Passenger rates, the carriers proposed, would be left unchanged and their program of advances, applicable throughout the country, did not take into account the wage increases later announced the railroad labor board.

The advances as prosed were:

Eastern roads, 30.4 percent, to yeld an advance in all revenues of 21.1 percent, or $544,000,000.

Western roads: 23.9 percent to advance all revenues 17 percent or $352,893,000.

Southern roads: 30.6 percent to provide 20.7 perecent larger revenue, or $120,770,000.

Apart from these advances, 38 roads in the southwest asked separate treatment from the western classification ,and a rate increase of 32.8 percent.

After the wage award was announced, the carriers proposed to the commission further increases in freight tariffs and higher passenger and Pullman rates to absorb the $626,000,000 additional granted the workers. Freight rates, they proposed, should bear an additional nine percent advance, amounting to $338,370,675. As modified finally, the carriers' full proposal was for total advances on freight and switching charges as follows:

Eastern roads: 39.75 percent. To yield an advance of $726,000,000.

Western roads: 32.03 percent. To yield $475,000,000.

Southern roads: 38.91 percent. To yield $154,000,000.

The carriers also proposed a 20 percent increase in passenger rates to yield $233,827,982 or $111,668,982 for eastern roads $92,332,599 for western roads and $29,826,401 for southern roads. To provide the remaining $53,000,000 to meet the wage increase, the carriers proposed a 50 percent surcharge on parlor and sleeping car rates to yield $43,639,344; an increase of 20 percent in excess baggage rates to yield $1,420,995 and an advance on milk rates proportionate to the freight rate increase to yield $8,662,089.

In the hearing on the original application of the roads for freight increases to yield $1,017,000,000, estimated valuation of $20,616,000,000 placed on the transportation systems by their owners was questioned that "book value" was unreliable, while the carriers contended that their figures were conservative, especially because of rising cost of materials and equipment. Increases in passenger rates, and flat freight increases instead of the perecentage advances, also were advocated by shippers to equalize the burden of any advance.

Setting out the necessity for the increase, the railroads claimed that the net income of all of the country's roads fell from $1,056,000,000,000 in 1916 to $510,000,000, in 1919, while their investment was increased more than $2,000,000,000. Operating expenses, the roads said, have increased 99.1 percent since 1916, and revenues 36.37 perecent. Operating expenses, it was added, are now 99 percent of the revenues, against 68 percent in 1916.

Arguing for the inceraess, the railroad executives said the one billion dollars of added revenue was necessary if the roads were to handle the nation's commerce satisfactorily. They contended that savings promised by them could not be effected at once because the roads were not returned to them in the same condition as they were when taken over and because of unsolved labor difficulties.

Clifford Thorne, of Chicago, representing shippers, recommended to the commission that the roads be unified for operation as they were in 1917, declaring that only in this way could the roads solve the existing transportation problem.

Mr. Thorne also argued that the rate advances asked were excessive as the carriers had not made any provision for more efficient operation or for decreases in the cost of materials. He also argued that the companies set too high a value on their properties and that they were capitalizing land granted them by federal and state government without cost and asking the people to forever pay a tax on these free gifts.

AGUINALDO PLEADS FILIPINO INDEPENDENCE

Famous Tagalog Warrior Talks of Native Country — Says Has Faith in World's Civilization.

Manila, P. I., Auf. 21.—Scothed in spirit and prospering in worldly goods in the twenty years since he led the wild bolo-armed Tagalogs against America's soldiers, Gen. Emilio Aquinaldo speaks as the most popular leader of the Filipinos.

The writer saw the famous warrior at his country home in the village of Kawit, midway between Manila and Cavite. In the large rambling frame house were chickens and pigs, while a dozen barefoot, but clean children were pleying in the big grounds in the rear. Across the road in the nipa-thatched huts, standing on poles like stilts above the ground, were more children and the same livestock, mothers were gossiping and smoking cigarettes, while leaning out of the windows. No men were present. It was Sunday and the weekly cock-fight demanded their attention. Adjoiinng the residence is the village school, the grounds of which Aguinaldo donates.

Surgeons Were "Careless."

Gen. Aguinaldo was home after a year in a hospital. He had been operated on for appendicitis and the surgeons had carelessly sewed up an assortment of toois inside the wound and it was necessary to operafe a second time. However, fate decreed that neither soldiers nor surgeons should kill him, and the hardy veteran survived. The affects of the ordeal were visible when my host, a slim man of medium height, grave and pleasant face, with a jet black pompadour, and dressed entirely in white, entered the parlor into which one of the barefoot boys had ushered me. Tho he speaks English and Spanish, Aquinaldo preferred to talk in his native Tagalog, and called in a young secretary to interpret.

"I have kept the oath I made to the United States not to talk politics, but now that the Americans are asking the views of the Filipinos, I will reply," he said. "Our people are happy, contended and more prosperous than they ever dreamed of becoming as the result of the American rule. The schools have taught them to think and industries and commerce have shown them the rewards of work. Now we want the independence which was promised to us.

Not Satisfying to Filipinos.

"The territorial form of government which the Americans in the islands, led by Senator George S. Fairchild, are advocating does not satisfy the Filipinos, much as we appreciate the honor of becoming American citizens.

"Senator Fairchild has done much to help the prosperity of the islands and is a man whose opinions we respect. However, he has apparently forgotten that the American Congress decided that it would be impossible for the Philippines to become an American territory.

"The Filipinos are able to govern themselves and the country will be able to survive as an independent nation, tho it is small compared with the other nations.. The recent war changed the world's ideas, and now it is considered right that the greater civilized nations should protect and encourage the smaller, newer and weaker countries.'

When it was suggested in response to this altruistic optimism as to the world policies that many Americans believed the aftermath of the war proved that the stronger nations were eager to gobble the smaller ones, Gen. Aguinaldo gazed for a moment thru the window at the peaceful rustic scene without. A water buffalo was wallowing in a mudhole, happy school children were playing and the cigarette-smoking mothers were lazily waving palms.

It was twenty years since the crack of rifles the cries of fighting men and the glow of burning villages disturbed the countryside despite the world conflict. It was difficult to realize that the strength of America, 6,000 miles away, had been the protecting power.

"I have faith in the world's civilization," said my host.

On returning to Manila our automobile stood on a bamboo raft alongside of a carload of yellw mangoes, while the ferryman, bare except for his blue breeches, pulled slowly across the river. "Is Don Emillo getting well? What did he say about politics?"

Everybody on the raft gathered solemnly to listen when the words of their leaders were repeated.

RESUME OF BILLION DOLLAR RATE INCREASE

Railroads Place High Valuation on Properties—Shippers Want Roads Unified for Solving Probblem.

Washington, Aug. 21.—In presenting their original applications for freight rate increases the railroads contended before the Interstate Commerce Commission that $1,011,000,000 was necessary to advance their income to the six percent basis permitted by the new transportation act. Shippers and state commissions generally agreed that some advances were necessary, but they opposed both the total and the method of application.

Passenger rates, the carriers proposed, would be left unchanged and their program of advances, applicable throughout the country, did not take into account the wage increases later announced the railroad labor board.

The advances as prosed were:

Eastern roads, 30.4 percent, to yeld an advance in all revenues of 21.1 percent, or $544,000,000.

Western roads: 23.9 percent to advance all revenues 17 percent or $352,893,000.

Southern roads: 30.6 percent to provide 20.7 perecent larger revenue, or $120,770,000.

Apart from these advances, 38 roads in the southwest asked separate treatment from the western classification ,and a rate increase of 32.8 percent.

After the wage award was announced, the carriers proposed to the commission further increases in freight tariffs and higher passenger and Pullman rates to absorb the $626,000,000 additional granted the workers. Freight rates, they proposed, should bear an additional nine percent advance, amounting to $338,370,675. As modified finally, the carriers' full proposal was for total advances on freight and switching charges as follows:

Eastern roads: 39.75 percent. To yield an advance of $726,000,000.

Western roads: 32.03 percent. To yield $475,000,000.

Southern roads: 38.91 percent. To yield $154,000,000.

The carriers also proposed a 20 percent increase in passenger rates to yield $233,827,982 or $111,668,982 for eastern roads $92,332,599 for western roads and $29,826,401 for southern roads. To provide the remaining $53,000,000 to meet the wage increase, the carriers proposed a 50 percent surcharge on parlor and sleeping car rates to yield $43,639,344; an increase of 20 percent in excess baggage rates to yield $1,420,995 and an advance on milk rates proportionate to the freight rate increase to yield $8,662,089.

In the hearing on the original application of the roads for freight increases to yield $1,017,000,000, estimated valuation of $20,616,000,000 placed on the transportation systems by their owners was questioned that "book value" was unreliable, while the carriers contended that their figures were conservative, especially because of rising cost of materials and equipment. Increases in passenger rates, and flat freight increases instead of the perecentage advances, also were advocated by shippers to equalize the burden of any advance.

Setting out the necessity for the increase, the railroads claimed that the net income of all of the country's roads fell from $1,056,000,000,000 in 1916 to $510,000,000, in 1919, while their investment was increased more than $2,000,000,000. Operating expenses, the roads said, have increased 99.1 percent since 1916, and revenues 36.37 perecent. Operating expenses, it was added, are now 99 percent of the revenues, against 68 percent in 1916.

Arguing for the inceraess, the railroad executives said the one billion dollars of added revenue was necessary if the roads were to handle the nation's commerce satisfactorily. They contended that savings promised by them could not be effected at once because the roads were not returned to them in the same condition as they were when taken over and because of unsolved labor difficulties.

Clifford Thorne, of Chicago, representing shippers, recommended to the commission that the roads be unified for operation as they were in 1917, declaring that only in this way could the roads solve the existing transportation problem.

Mr. Thorne also argued that the rate advances asked were excessive as the carriers had not made any provision for more efficient operation or for decreases in the cost of materials. He also argued that the companies set too high a value on their properties and that they were capitalizing land granted them by federal and state government without cost and asking the people to forever pay a tax on these free gifts.

AGUINALDO PLEADS FILIPINO INDEPENDENCE

Famous Tagalog Warrior Talks of Native Country — Says Has Faith in World's Civilization.

Manila, P. I., Auf. 21.—Scothed in spirit and prospering in worldly goods in the twenty years since he led the wild bolo-armed Tagalogs against America's soldiers, Gen. Emilio Aquinaldo speaks as the most popular leader of the Filipinos.

The writer saw the famous warrior at his country home in the village of Kawit, midway between Manila and Cavite. In the large rambling frame house were chickens and pigs, while a dozen barefoot, but clean children were pleying in the big grounds in the rear. Across the road in the nipa-thatched huts, standing on poles like stilts above the ground, were more children and the same livestock, mothers were gossiping and smoking cigarettes, while leaning out of the windows. No men were present. It was Sunday and the weekly cock-fight demanded their attention. Adjoiinng the residence is the village school, the grounds of which Aguinaldo donates.

Surgeons Were "Careless."

Gen. Aguinaldo was home after a year in a hospital. He had been operated on for appendicitis and the surgeons had carelessly sewed up an assortment of toois inside the wound and it was necessary to operate a second time. However, fate decreed that neither soldiers nor surgeons should kill him, and the hardy veteran survived. The affects of the ordeal were visible when my host, a slim man of medium height, grave and pleasant face, with a jet black pompadour, and dressed entirely in white, entered the parlor into which one of the barefoot boys had ushered me. Tho he speaks English and Spanish, Aquinaldo preferred to talk in his native Tagalog, and called in a young secretary to interpret.

"I have kept the oath I made to the United States not to talk politics, but now that the Americans are asking the views of the Filipinos, I will reply," he said. "Our people are happy, contended and more prosperous than they ever dreamed of becoming as the result of the American rule. ## AMERICA TO HONOR JENNY LIND'S MEMORY

Hundredth Anniversary of Birth of Swedish Nightingale to be Commemorated Thruout Music-Loving World.

New York, Aug. 20.—America will pay tribute to Jenny Lind on October 6, the one-hundrth anniversary of the birth of the Swedish Nightingale, whom P. T. Earnum brought to this country in 1850 on her spectacular concert tour of nearly two years. The centennial is to be commemorated thruout the music-loving world. In Sweden, in England and in other countries where she sang, fitting plans are under way to honor the greatest singer of her time—the fine, noble-hearted woman, whose charity was a rare as her art.

Her admirers in New York City celebrate the event in an unique way. They will give an historical concert—reproduce the first concert Jenny Lind gave in this country, bringing back the stage picture and atmosphere of that memorable night of September 11, 1850. The same program will be given. The proceeds of the concert will be given to the same charitable institutions to which Jenny Lind gave the proceeds of the original concert.

Frieda Hempel Will Appear.

Frieda Hempel will appear in the rolé of her famous predecessor. She will wear an exact copy of the gown worn by the nineteenth century diva; will sing the same arias, and play her own accompaniments to the same group of songs on the same piano Jenny Lind played them—a piano autographed by the Swedish Nightingale on the night of her debut.

The centennial concert will be given in Carnegie hall on the evening of October 6. Castle Garden, the scene of Jenny Lind's first American triumph, has been transformed into the Aquarium and thus is deprived of the honor of housing another memorable audience.

It is contemplated to hold a centennial exhibit, however, in the old circular building in Battery Park from October 1 to October 10. Many of Jenny Lind's personal belongings and interesting relics associated with her tour here will be shown. The old concert grand piano will have its place of honor.

On the afternoon of October 6, the park commissiners of New York City will present to the Aquariam a marble bust of Jenny Lind and a portrait of the famous singtr, both made for her when she was in this country.

Other American cities where Jenny Lind sang are arranging to celebrate the day.

Born in Stockholm.

Jenny Lind was born in Stockholm of humble parents. She sang from childhood and famous teachers became interested in her. At 12, her voice entirely failed.

Four years later it came back and her remarkable career began. Her first operatic role was Alice in Meyerbeer's "Robert le Diable.' Having been acclaimed in her own country and in Norway, she carried her conquests to the continent and to England.

She was probably the most-talked-of person in public life in all Europe when Barnum, without having seen her or heard her, persuaded her to make a tour of the United States. No sooner was the contract signed than the new impressario, according to his autobiography, "began to prepare the public mind for the reception of the great songstress."

The steamer Atlantic that brot her to this country was saluted at Sandy Hook and again as she plowed up the Narrows. Forty thousand people assembled at the landing and on the surrounding peirs to greet her. Triumphal arches marked her appearance. Auctions for the sale of tickets brought thousands of buyers. Genin, a hatter—"A Mad Hatter" they called him—paid $225 for the first New York ticket. His unheard of extravagance made him famous. The highest price paid for a single ticket was in Providence, where the bit of pasteboard was knocked down to Colonel Ross for $650.

Gave Many Concerts.

The Nightingale gave about 135 concerts in this country—more than 35 in New York City. Everywhere audiences fought to gain entrance to the concert halls. Everywhere they stormed her with applause—and everywhere admirers and charity seekers besieged her. Extra concerts had to be given to satisfy the throngs—and Jenny Lind herself added more extra concerts for charity.

People prominent in public life paid her great honors. Mayors and governors presented their compliments in person.

Jenny Lind broke her contract with Barnum with 55 concerts yet to sing—but the great showman and the Nightingale parted friends. While visiting in Boston, she was married to Otto Goldschmidt, composer and pianist and shortly thereafter returned to Europe. In 1858, she took up her residence in England, where she died in 1887.

There is no record of Jenny Lind's voice. But the journals of her time, the few living people who heard her and those to whom the memory has been handed down all tell the same story —"It was wonderful!"

Dublin. — Killarney ad other tourists' resorts in Ireland which have been expecting a big influx of American visitors, are experiencing disappointment on account of the disruption of the railways, owing to the refusal of the men to carry armed police and soldiers. This has caused a slackening in the number of persons travelling, but the final blow came when the military decided to take over the hotels to replace the barracks which the Sinn Feiners had destroyed. It is announced that soldiers have occupied two of the largest hotels in Killarney and are erecting a wireless station there.

Among some of the reasons given for the increase are that there are more men at home and fewer of them in khaki, more policemen and those less overworked available for street duty, more hours for drinking and stronger liquor.

So Essex Holds the Transcontinental Record Both Ways

Two Essex touring cars, carrying U. S. Mail, each one making the entire trip between San Francisco and New York, have set the time records for their respective directions across the American continent.

And thus comes to Essex another distinction for reliability and endurance.

Except for one airplane record, these two Essex cars have crossed the continent in less time that was ever recorded by any traveling machine. The fastest time possible between San Francisco and New York by train is slightly less than the time taken by the light weight economical Essex. But in the case of the railroad train, many different locomotives are used, each pulling the train only a few hundred miles.

From Cheyenne to Omaha the route taken by the Essex was 43 miles longer than the 550 mile route of the famous Overland Limited yet the Essex time was but one hour longer than the express train time.

The World's Most Coveted Records

From the days of the Prairie Schooner, the Pony Express and the completion of the railroads men have sought to establish new transcontinental time records between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans.

It has called for the highest development of skill and courage. And it has, as in the case of the motor car, blazed the way to mechanical reliability.

The purpose of this Essex test was to prove its reliability. In the period of 114 hours was crowded more strains, more calls for endurance and mechanical strength than the average owner demands in a life time.

Every requirement of motor car performance was met by these two cars. And the fact that they so consistently met their tasks proves Essex uniformity.

The speeds at which they traveled were not so unusual, for another Essex stock car had on a speedway track gone 3037 miles in 50 hours. But in the transcontinental runs, some 350 cities and towns had to be crossed. Crowded traffic imposed its obstacles to consistent going. Mountain ranges in the East and West with grades such as the average driver never encounters, called for the utmost of hill climbing ability.

Few will ever motor all the way across America and therefore cannot know the extreme varieties of conditions encountered. But let each reader apply to his consideration of what Essex has done, exery experience he has ever met in his own driving. It will give some appreciation of Essex reliability.

Light Weight Now Establishes Reliability

How gradual have men come to a realization that a light weight car can also offer reliance and performance.

Essex has led the way for that was its purpose from the very first. Economy is of growing importance. Men want to save in fuel and in first costs. But they want no sacrifice in performance and they demand unquestioned reliability.

Essex offered itself to the public without claim. Now more than 40,000 owners know and praise its worth.

Owner cars that had been driven upwards of 25,000 miles were used in the recent nation wide Essex week to establish reliability, economy, speed and hill climbing records.

To Essex owners the winning of the transcontinental records it not a surprise. But those who do not know Essex performance and reliability must regard that these two trips across the continent are as important in marking mechanical advancement as any similar event in the history of the motor car.

Daily Market Report

ALL GRAINS SUFFER SETBACK SATURDAY

CHICAGO, Aug. 21—Favorable weather conditions over the west and low selling price of Canadian wheat to the seaboard today caused all grains to suffer a setback here after they had started fairly steady. Provisions, however, remained quiet and firm. Compared with the previous close wheat was off 3¼ to 4½c with December $2.32½ to $2.33½, and March $2.35. Corn was down 1½c to 2¾c while oats showed a net loss of ⅝c to 1½c. Provisions were 20 to 80c net higher.

Fear of Canadian competition on an increasing scale with the belief that British purchasers will be confined largely to Canadian grain for a time at least created a more bearish view in regard to prices here.

Soaking rains overnight in parts of Illinois and Indiana that had been in need of moisture for some time past led to free selling and a lower range in corn. The weakness in wheat also helped the market become bearish, altho the heavy short covering of yesterday eliminated one of the chief bull factors.

SHORTS AT MERCY OF BULL POOLS

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Shorts were at the mercy of bull pools during today's brief but fairly active session of the stock market, suffering further punishment as they were driven to cover in the more popular speculative issues.

Additional gains of one to almost seven points were scored by steels, equipments, oils, motors and various specialties.

Canadian Pacific, Reading and Baltimore represented the transportations but eased with the general list in the selling for profits that ensued in the final dealings. Sales amounted to 225,000 shares.

Exchange on London and several of the shares forfeited part of yesterday's rally.

The bond market was variable, firmness in liberty issues being offset by irregularity in some of the rails and industrials as well as foreign flotations.

Total sales, par value, aggregated $3,775,000.

ALL GRAINS SUFFER SETBACK SATURDAY

CHICAGO, Aug. 21—Favorable weather conditions over the west and low selling price of Canadian wheat to the seaboard today caused all grains to suffer a setback here after they had started fairly steady. Provisions, however, remained quiet and firm. Compared with the previous close wheat was off 3¼ to 4¾c with December $2.32½ to $2.33½, and March $2.35. Corn was down 1½c to 2¾c while oats showed a net loss of ¾c to 1½c. Provisions were 20 to 80c net higher.

Fear of Canadian competition on an increasing scale with the belief that British purchasers will be confined largely to Canadian grain for a time at least created a more bearish view in regard to prices here.

Soaking rains overnight in parts of Illinois and Indiana that had been in need of moisture for some time past led to free selling and a lower range in corn. The weakness in wheat also helped the market become bearish, altho the heavy short covering of yesterday eliminated one of the chief bull factors.

SHORTS AT MERCY OF BULL POOLS

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Shorts were at the mercy of bull pools during today's brief but fairly active session of the stock market, suffering further punishment as they were driven to cover in the more popular speculative issues.

Additional gains of one to almost seven points were scored by steels, equipments, oils, motors and various specialties.

Canadian Pacific, Reading and Baltimore represented the transportations but eased with the general list in the selling for profits that ensued in the final dealings. Sales amounted to 225,000 shares.

Exchange on London and several of the shares forfeited part of yesterday's rally.

The bond market was variable, firmness in liberty issues being offset by irregularity in some of the rails and industrials as well as foreign flotations.

Total sales, par value, aggregated $3,775,000.

AMERICA TO HONOR JENNY LIND'S MEMORY

New York, Aug. 20.—America will pay tribute to Jenny Lind on October 6, the one-hundrth anniversary of the birth of the Swedish Nightingale, whom P. T. Earnum brought to this country in 1850 on her spectacular concert tour of nearly two years. The centennial is to be commemorated thruout the music-loving world. In Sweden, in England and in other countries where she sang, fitting plans are under way to honor the greatest singer of her time—the fine, noble-hearted woman, whose charity was a rare as her art.

Her admirers in New York City celebrate the event in an unique way. They will give an historical concert—reproduce the first concert Jenny Lind gave in this country, bringing back the stage picture and atmosphere of that memorable night of September 11, 1850. The same program will be given. The proceeds of the concert will be given to the same charitable institutions to which Jenny Lind gave the proceeds of the original concert.

Frieda Hempel Will Appear.

Frieda Hempel will appear in the rolé of her famous predecessor. She will wear an exact copy of the gown worn by the nineteenth century diva; will sing the same arias, and play her own accompaniments to the same group of songs on the same piano Jenny Lind played them—a piano autographed by the Swedish Nightingale on the night of her debut.

The centennial concert will be given in Carnegie hall on the evening of October 6. Castle Garden, the scene of Jenny Lind's first American triumph, has been transformed into the Aquarium and thus is deprived of the honor of housing another memorable audience.

It is contemplated to hold a centennial exhibit, however, in the old circular building in Battery Park from October 1 to October 10. Many of Jenny Lind's personal belongings and interesting relics associated with her tour here will be shown. The old concert grand piano will have its place of honor.

On the afternoon of October 6, the park commissiners of New York City will present to the Aquariam a marble bust of Jenny Lind and a portrait of the famous singtr, both made for her when she was in this country.

Other American cities where Jenny Lind sang are arranging to celebrate the day.

Born in Stockholm.

Jenny Lind was born in Stockholm of humble parents. She sang from childhood and famous teachers became interested in her. At 12, her voice entirely failed.

Four years later it came back and her remarkable career began. Her first operatic role was Alice in Meyerbeer's "Robert le Diable.' Having been acclaimed in her own country and in Norway, she carried her conquests to the continent and to England.

She was probably the most-talked-of person in public life in all Europe when Barnum, without having seen her or heard her, persuaded her to make a tour of the United States. No sooner was the contract signed than the new impressario, according to his autobiography, "began to prepare the public mind for the reception of the great songstress."

The steamer Atlantic that brot her to this country was saluted at Sandy Hook and again as she plowed up the Narrows. Forty thousand people assembled at the landing and on the surrounding peirs to greet her. Triumphal arches marked her appearance. Auctions for the sale of tickets brought thousands of buyers. Genin, a hatter—"A Mad Hatter" they called him—paid $225 for the first New York ticket. His unheard of extravagance made him famous. The highest price paid for a single ticket was in Providence, where the bit of pasteboard was knocked down to Colonel Ross for $650.

Gave Many Concerts.

The Nightingale gave about 135 concerts in this country—more than 35 in New York City. Everywhere audiences fought to gain entrance to the concert halls. Everywhere they stormed her with applause—and everywhere admirers and charity seekers besieged her. Extra concerts had to be given to satisfy the throngs—and Jenny Lind herself added more extra concerts for charity.

People prominent in public life paid her great honors. Mayors and governors presented their compliments in person.

Jenny Lind broke her contract with Barnum with 55 concerts yet to sing—but the great showman and the Nightingale parted friends. While visiting in Boston, she was married to Otto Goldschmidt, composer and pianist and shortly thereafter returned to Europe. In 1858, she took up her residence in England, where she died in 1887.

There is no record of Jenny Lind's voice. But the journals of her time, the few living people who heard her and those to whom the memory has been handed down all tell the same story—"It was wonderful!"

Among some of the reasons given for the increase are that there are more men at home and fewer of them in khaki, more policemen and those less overworked available for street duty, more hours for drinking and stronger liquor.

ESSEX

San Francisco to New York 3347 Miles — 4 Days 14 Hours 43 Minutes

Lowers Transcontinental Record by 12 Hours 48 Min. Another Essex Going From New York to San Francisco Broke the Record For That Direction bp 22 Hours 13 Min., Completing the Trip In 4 Days 19 Hours 17 Minutes

So Essex Holds the Transcontinental Record Both Ways

Two Essex touring cars, carrying U. S. Mail, each one making the entire trip between San Francisco and New York, have set the time records for their respective directions across the American continent.

And thus comes to Essex another distinction for reliability and endurance.

Except for one airplane record, these two Essex cars have crossed the continent in less time that was ever recorded by any traveling machine. The fastest time possible between San Francisco and New York by train is slightly less than the time taken by the light weight economical Essex. But in the case of the railroad train, many different locomotives are used, each pulling the train only a few hundred miles.

From Cheyenne to Omaha the route taken by the Essex was 43 miles longer than the 550 mile route of the famous Overland Limited yet the Essex time was but one hour longer than the express train time.

The World's Most Coveted Records

From the days of the Prairie Schooner, the Pony Express and the completion of the railroads men have sought to establish new transcontinental time records between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans.

It has called for the highest development of skill and courage. And it has, as in the case of the motor car, blazed the way to mechanical reliability.

The purpose of this Essex test was to prove its reliability. In the period of 114 hours was crowded more strains, more calls for endurance and mechanical strength than the average owner demands in a life time.

Every requirement of motor car performance was met by these two cars. And the fact that they so consistently met their tasks proves Essex uniformity.

The speeds at which they traveled were not so unusual, for another Essex stock car had on a speedway track gone 3037 miles in 50 hours. But in the transcontinental runs, some 350 cities and towns had to be crossed. Crowded traffic imposed its obstacles to consistent going. Mountain ranges in the East and West with grades such as the average driver never encounters, called for the utmost of hill climbing ability.

Few will ever motor all the way across America and therefore cannot know the extreme varieties of conditions encountered. But let each reader apply to his consideration of what Essex has done, exery experience he has ever met in his own driving. It will give some appreciation of Essex reliability.

Light Weight Now Establishes Reliability

How gradual have men come to a realization that a light weight car can also offer reliance and performance.

Essex has led the way for that was its purpose from the very first. Economy is of growing importance. Men want to save in fuel and in first costs. But they want no sacrifice in performance and they demand unquestioned reliability.

Essex offered itself to the public without claim. Now more than 40,000 owners know and praise its worth.

Owner cars that had been driven upwards of 25,000 miles were used in the recent nation wide Essex week to establish reliability, economy, speed and hill climbing records.

To Essex owners the winning of the transcontinental records it not a surprise. But those who do not know Essex performance and reliability must regard that these two trips across the continent are as important in marking mechanical advancement as any similar event in the history of the motor car.

AMERICA TO HONOR JENNY LIND'S MEMORY

New York, Aug. 20.—America will pay tribute to Jenny Lind on October 6, the one-hundrth anniversary of the birth of the Swedish Nightingale, whom P. T. Earnum brought to this country in 1850 on her spectacular concert tour of nearly two years. The centennial is to be commemorated thruout the music-loving world. In Sweden, in England and in other countries where she sang, fitting plans are under way to honor the greatest singer of her time—the fine, noble-hearted woman, whose charity was a rare as her art.

Her admirers in New York City celebrate the event in an unique way. They will give an historical concert—reproduce the first concert Jenny Lind gave in this country, bringing back the stage picture and atmosphere of that memorable night of September 11, 1850. The same program will be given. The proceeds of the concert will be given to the same charitable institutions to which Jenny Lind gave the proceeds of the original concert.

Frieda Hempel Will Appear.

Frieda Hempel will appear in the rolé of her famous predecessor. She will wear an exact copy of the gown worn by the nineteenth century diva; will sing the same arias, and play her own accompaniments to the same group of songs on the same piano Jenny Lind played them—a piano autographed by the Swedish Nightingale on the night of her debut.

The centennial concert will be given in Carnegie hall on the evening of October 6. Castle Garden, the scene of Jenny Lind's first American triumph, has been transformed into the Aquarium and thus is deprived of the honor of housing another memorable audience.

It is contemplated to hold a centennial exhibit, however, in the old circular building in Battery Park from October 1 to October 10. Many of Jenny Lind's personal belongings and interesting relics associated with her tour here will be shown. The old concert grand piano will have its place of honor.

On the afternoon of October 6, the park commissiners of New York City will present to the Aquariam a marble bust of Jenny Lind and a portrait of the famous singtr, both made for her when she was in this country.

Born in Stockholm.

Jenny Lind was born in Stockholm of humble parents. She sang from childhood and famous teachers became interested in her. At 12, her voice entirely failed.

Four years later it came back and her remarkable career began. Her first operatic role was Alice in Meyerbeer's "Robert le Diable.' Having been acclaimed in her own country and in Norway, she carried her conquests to the continent and to England.

She was probably the most-talked-of person in public life in all Europe when Barnum, without having seen her or heard her, persuaded her to make a tour of the United States. No sooner was the contract signed than the new impressario, according to his autobiography, "began to prepare the public mind for the reception of the great songstress."

The steamer Atlantic that brot her to this country was saluted at Sandy Hook and again as she plowed up the Narrows. Forty thousand people assembled at the landing and on the surrounding peirs to greet her. Triumphal arches marked her appearance. Auctions for the sale of tickets brought thousands of buyers. Genin, a hatter—"A Mad Hatter" they called him—paid $225 for the first New York ticket. His unheard of extravagance made him famous. The highest price paid for a single ticket was in Providence, where the bit of pasteboard was knocked down to Colonel Ross for $650.

Gave Many Concerts.

The Nightingale gave about 135 concerts in this country—more than 35 in New York City. Everywhere audiences fought to gain entrance to the concert halls. Everywhere they stormed her with applause—and everywhere admirers and charity seekers besieged her. Extra concerts had to be given to satisfy the throngs—and Jenny Lind herself added more extra concerts for charity.

People prominent in public life paid her great honors. Mayors and governors presented their compliments in person.

Jenny Lind broke her contract with Barnum with 55 concerts yet to sing—but the great showman and the Nightingale parted friends. While visiting in Boston, she was married to Otto Goldschmidt, composer and pianist and shortly thereafter returned to Europe. In 1858, she took up her residence in England, where she died in 1887.

There is no record of Jenny Lind's voice. But the journals of her time, the few living people who heard her and those to whom the memory has been handed down all tell the same story —"It was wonderful!"

"THE FORDSON DID IT"

At the Tractor demonstration held at Virginia last week, the Fordson walked away with the first prize. There were six or eight in the contest. Now is the time to commence your Fall plowing, putting the ground in order for the seed bed. You may not know it, but a Fordson Tractor outfit is not only the best but the cheapest outfit you can possibly get. It will do more than anything else and do it in less time at less expense than anything you can buy. I have them and can supply you early.

FEW TOURISTS VISIT IRELAND

Dublin. — Killarney ad other tourists' resorts in Ireland which have been expecting a big influx of American visitors, are experiencing disappointment on account of the disruption of the railways, owing to the refusal of the men to carry armed police and soldiers. This has caused a slackening in the number of persons travelling, but the final blow came when the military decided to take over the hotels to replace the barracks which the Sinn Feiners had destroyed. It is announced that soldiers have occupied two of the largest hotels in Killarney and are erecting a wireless station there.

MORE MEN AT HOME CAUSES DRUNKENNESS

LONDON, — Convictions for drunkenness in England and Wales in 1919 was nearly double the figure for 1918. The total was 57,948 as compared with 29,075, according to an official report just issued. Greater London and Northern England accounted for 93 per cent of the total.

Among some of the reasons given for the increase are that there are more men at home and fewer of them in khaki, more policemen and those less overworked available for street duty, more hours for drinking and stronger liquor.

ESSEX MOTOR CARS

ESSEX

San Francisco to New York 3347 Miles — 4 Days 14 Hours 43 Minutes

Lowers Transcontinental Record by 12 Hours 48 Min. Another Essex Going From New York to San Francisco Broke the Record For That Direction bp 22 Hours 13 Min., Completing the Trip In 4 Days 19 Hours 17 Minutes

So Essex Holds the Transcontinental Record Both Ways

Two Essex touring cars, carrying U. S. Mail, each one making the entire trip between San Francisco and New York, have set the time records for their respective directions across the American continent.

And thus comes to Essex another distinction for reliability and endurance.

Except for one airplane record, these two Essex cars have crossed the continent in less time that was ever recorded by any traveling machine. The fastest time possible between San Francisco and New York by train is slightly less than the time taken by the light weight economical Essex. But in the case of the railroad train, many different locomotives are used, each pulling the train only a few hundred miles.

From Cheyenne to Omaha the route taken by the Essex was 43 miles longer than the 550 mile route of the famous Overland Limited yet the Essex time was but one hour longer than the express train time.

The World's Most Coveted Records

From the days of the Prairie Schooner, the Pony Express and the completion of the railroads men have sought to establish new transcontinental time records between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans.

It has called for the highest development of skill and courage. And it has, as in the case of the motor car, blazed the way to mechanical reliability.

The purpose of this Essex test was to prove its reliability. In the period of 114 hours was crowded more strains, more calls for endurance and mechanical strength than the average owner demands in a life time.

Every requirement of motor car performance was met by these two cars. And the fact that they so consistently met their tasks proves Essex uniformity.

The speeds at which they traveled were not so unusual, for another Essex stock car had on a speedway track gone 3037 miles in 50 hours. But in the transcontinental runs, some 350 cities and towns had to be crossed. Crowded traffic imposed its obstacles to consistent going. Mountain ranges in the East and West with grades such as the average driver never encounters, called for the utmost of hill climbing ability.

Few will ever motor all the way across America and therefore cannot know the extreme varieties of conditions encountered. But let each reader apply to his consideration of what Essex has done, exery experience he has ever met in his own driving. It will give some appreciation of Essex reliability.

Light Weight Now Establishes Reliability

How gradual have men come to a realization that a light weight car can also offer reliance and performance.

Essex has led the way for that was its purpose from the very first. Economy is of growing importance. Men want to save in fuel and in first costs. But they want no sacrifice in performance and they demand unquestioned reliability.

Essex offered itself to the public without claim. Now more than 40,000 owners know and praise its worth.

Owner cars that had been driven upwards of 25,000 miles were used in the recent nation wide Essex week to establish reliability, economy, speed and hill climbing records.

To Essex owners the winning of the transcontinental records it not a surprise. But those who do not know Essex performance and reliability must regard that these two trips across the continent are as important in marking mechanical advancement as any similar event in the history of the motor car.

ALL GRAINS SUFFER SETBACK SATURDAY

CHICAGO, Aug. 21—Favorable weather conditions over the west and low selling price of Canadian wheat to the seaboard today caused all grains to suffer a setback here after they had started fairly steady. Provisions, however, remained quiet and firm. Compared with the previous close wheat was off 3¼ to 4¼c with December $2.32½ to $2.33½, and March $2.35. Corn was down 1½c to 2¾c while oats showed a net loss of ¾c to 1½c. Provisions were 20 to 80c net higher.

Fear of Canadian competition on an increasing scale with the belief that British purchasers will be confined largely to Canadian grain for a time at least created a more bearish view in regard to prices here.

Soaking rains overnight in parts of Illinois and Indiana that had been in need of moisture for some time past led to free selling and a lower range in corn. The weakness in wheat also helped the market become bearish, altho the heavy short covering of yesterday eliminated one of the chief bull factors.

SHORTS AT MERCY OF BULL POOLS

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Shorts were at the mercy of bull pools during today's brief but fairly active session of the stock market, suffering further punishment as they were driven to cover in the more popular speculative issues.

Additional gains of one to almost seven points were scored by steels, equipments, oils, motors and various specialties.

Canadian Pacific, Reading and Baltimore represented the transportations but eased with the general list in the selling for profits that ensued in the final dealings. Sales amounted to 225,000 shares.

Exchange on London and several of the shares forfeited part of yesterday's rally.

The bond market was variable, firmness in liberty issues being offset by irregularity in some of the rails and industrials as well as foreign flotations.

Total sales, par value, aggregated $3,775,000.

Daily Market Report

ALL GRAINS SUFFER SETBACK SATURDAY

CHICAGO, Aug. 21—Favorable weather conditions over the west and low selling price of Canadian wheat to the seaboard today caused all grains to suffer a setback here after they had started fairly steady. Provisions, however, remained quiet and firm. Compared with the previous close wheat was off 3¼ to 4¼c with December $2.32½ to $2.33½, and March $2.35. Corn was down 1½c to 2¾c while oats showed a net loss of ¾c to 1½c. Provisions were 20 to 80c net higher.

Fear of Canadian competition on an increasing scale with the belief that British purchasers will be confined largely to Canadian grain for a time at least created a more bearish view in regard to prices here.

Soaking rains overnight in parts of Illinois and Indiana that had been in need of moisture for some time past led to free selling and a lower range in corn. The weakness in wheat also helped the market become bearish, altho the heavy short covering of yesterday eliminated one of the chief bull factors.

SHORTS AT MERCY OF BULL POOLS

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Shorts were at the mercy of bull pools during today's brief but fairly active session of the stock market, suffering further punishment as they were driven to cover in the more popular speculative issues.

Additional gains of one to almost seven points were scored by steels, equipments, oils, motors and various specialties.

Canadian Pacific, Reading and Baltimore represented the transportations but eased with the general list in the selling for profits that ensued in the final dealings. Sales amounted to 225,000 shares.

Exchange on London and several of the shares forfeited part of yesterday's rally.

The bond market was variable, firmness in liberty issues being offset by irregularity in some of the rails and industrials as well as foreign flotations.

Total sales, par value, aggregated $3,775,000.

Farm Bureau Notes

More Limestone Orders—Land owners frequently state that renters are unwilling to haul out lime and phosphate even when it is furnished. We have in mind a case in which a carload of limestone was ordered by a progressive land owner for a farm in the southern part of the county, after the soil had been carefully tested by the county agent and lay at that station for months because the tenants thought it would not pay to haul it out. All renters are not of that type. We suspect that Dr. Grace Dewey has furnished as much limestone for her farm during the past two years as anyone in the county and has had no trouble in getting it hauled to the farms. Charles Hadden, who leases one of these farms is perfectly willing to haul limestone when it is furnished. When land owner and land operator work together in this way it is certainly a step in the right direction.

Seed Safe—The County Agent has agreed to cooperate with I. A. Madden, Farm Adviser in Sangamon county in advertising October 1st as the earliest date on which it is safe to seed wheat to escape the attacks of the Hessian fly. We hope that every reader will call the attention of his neighbors to this date and make Morgan county 100 per cent free from the Hessian fly. We ask the co-operation of newspapers, banks, elevators, churches and schools in dissemating this information.

Duroc Breeders' Plan Sale—The members of the Morgan county Duroc Breeders' association met in the farm bureau office on Thursday evening and discussed the matter of a fall sale. After an informal discussion it was moved that a consignment sale for members of the Duroc Association be held some time in October and that a committee upon advertising and another on general arrangements for a place for the sale be appointed. C. R. Gibson and C. L. Hawker were appointed by the President on this committee. Howard Stevenson was appointed on the committee to arange for a place for the sale. Further, voted to hold another meeting on the evening of September 3rd and discuss further details of the sale.

The members of the association voted to send $25 prize money to E. L. Dillon at Waverly, to be used as premiums on Durocs in the live stock show at Waverly on September 2nd. The members of this association further voted to select enough Durocs from the herds of the county to make a complete entry at this show and to transport them down to Waverly as a demonstration for the Duroc breed whether there was any money offered or not. They seem to think this would be a good way to advertise the sale in October. It was voted that the President L. A. Reed, be authorized to seelct the breeding stock for this demonstration. Mr. Reed agreed to make the rounds Saturday afternoon. In all probability this demonstration truck train will be a good feature of the Waverly show.

Office Hours During Chautauqua—The Farm Bureau office will be open in the forenoon during chautauqua and the County Agent will endeavor to take care of all calls for service during the forenoon where they take him out into country runs. The office in the Hockenhull Building will be closed during the afternoon performance at the chautauqua but representatives of the farm bureau will be found at the farm bureau tent upon the grounds.

More Storage Room Needed for Country Elevators—We are thoroly in sympathy with W. G. Eckhardt's grain marketing scheme in recommending additional storage for grain at country elevators. In all probability the managers of our elevators would feel much more comfortable if they could store all the grain raised by the people in the reach of their elevators and the men who raise the grain would be decidedly happier if they could thresh without delay and store their grain. It seems to us that instead of building storage bins on the farm, it is desirable to subscribe for more stock for elevators and erect more storage buildings on the railroads where the grain can be shipped as needed. It has been the experience of a great many of us that when the grain is high in price, either cars cannot be had or else the roads were to heavy to haul. In building elevators we can eliminate one of these drawbacks. Finally it will enable the men who produce the grain or their representatives to market that just as the demand will come at a satisfactory price. Ultimately, however, we must have control of adequate storage space at the great terminal markets.

Back Yard Poultry Keeping—A great many people living in both large and small towns would like to keep chickens but seem to think it doesn't pay. For the benefit of those who think as stated we are giving a little personal experience. Late last fall, we purchased seven Rhode Island Red hens from D. T. Heimlich and proceeded to have them fed corn and oats purchased of the local elevator and a bran mash containing a reasonble amount of meat scrap procured from a local business house. These hens began to lay December 31st and up to the present time have laid enough eggs to pay for the $12 originally expended for them and all the feed purchased and a small sum in addition. The project, however, has not been without its downs. One of the birds died of apoplexy. One of the greatest objections for keeping poultry in our back yards has been the noise made by the male bird. But in this case no male bird was kept. It may be in order to state, that we have found that the Rhode Island Reds are good layers, but in the summer they are inclined to be decidedly broody.

A Good Yield of Clover—John Flynn from Clements Station bought a sample of red clover seed to the office Thursday. He is hulling seed at the present time and thinks it will average close to 5 bushels per acre. The sample is certainly a fine one as it contains a great deal of purple seed which seems to be a popular color among those who wish to buy clover seed. Mr. Flynn sows clover seed regularly with a small grain and seems to be very successful in raising this crop. As a general thing he pastures clover instead of cutting it for hay or seed. The present high yield is from the first crop which he allowed to stand. Mr. Flynn has a distinction of establishing the record price for Morgan county farm land. He bought a small tract at auction last summer at $525 per acre.
